Administrators direct school expansion

Led by its able superintendent, administration, and faculty, New Trier High School this year maintained its highly respected position among the American secondary institutions. To meet the needs of a growing New Trier, several changes in the administration were put into effect. This year Miss Helen Maloney and Mr. William Gannaway, relieved of extra work, acted chiefly as the college guidance counselors of girls and boys respectively. Miss Louise Hamilton took charge of girls' discipline while continuing her duties as senior girls' adviser chairman. Mr. Erwin A. Weingartner was in charge of boys' discipline, as well as being sophomore boys' adviser chairman. With additional responsibilities in co-ordinating school activities, Dr. Richard E. Gadske again served as Dean of Students. New to New Trier this year was Dr. Stanley S. Starkman, who became staff psychologist and special adviser on personnel problems.

Forty-three teachers joined the faculty this year. Newcomers to the English department were Mr. Rollin O. Glaser, Mr. Howard M. Goldfinger, Miss Anne D. Kernan, Mr. James R. Landers, Dr. William A. McColly, Mrs. Mary I. McGuire, Miss Karla A. Michelke, Miss Karin E. Swanson, and Mrs. G. C. Moore. New to the language department were Mrs. Barbara C. Atwood and Mrs. Edith Z. Jokay in French, Dr. Gertrude G. Drake in Latin, and Miss Lorraine M. Mair in Spanish. Miss Marjorie A. Gay, Mr. Michael Greenebaum, Mr. Paul W. Knupfer, and Miss Judith S. Turner joined the social studies department in the fall. Mrs. E. Burns and Mrs. M. Shearer came at mid-term. Mr. Donald W. Ickes and Mr. Ralph V. Mitchell, who handled the school's visual aids and publicity programs respectively, also belonged to this department. New teachers in the mathematics department were Mrs. Ethel M. Guest, Mrs. Ann C. Nicholson, Mr. Stanley A. Paumer, Miss Mae E. Studer, and Miss Joan E. Wagner.

Additions to the home economics department were Mrs. Ellen O. Courtney and Miss Lenore H. Engelhardt. Mr. Robert E. Kuennen and Miss Ann R. Mamett took positions in the art department. Both the girls' and the boys' physical education departments increased in size this year. New to the girls' physical education department were Miss Carolyn L. Cress, Mrs. Margaret H. Hoopes, Miss Joann M. Johnson, and Miss Dorothy A. Niemi. Mr. Raymond B. Essick and Mr. Earl Schabel became members of the boys' physical education department. Three departments received only one additional teacher: the science department, Mr. Robert B. Bell; the music department, Mr. Frank M. Pooler; and the business department, Mr. Rexford G. Lewis. Mrs. Velma S. Ylvisaker joined the faculty as a speech therapist. The new visiting adjustment counselor was Mrs. Judith Millenson. Mrs. Hilda Bruno was employed to continue the EMH program which was started at Wilmette Junior High School.

The eight new office staff members were

Mrs. Lillian Evers, Mrs. Louise Frazier, Miss Sandra Irwin, Mrs. Jeanette Larsen, Miss Emma Lulie, Mrs. Willo Rodbro, Miss Joyce Schneider, and Mrs. Dolores Vernier. New to the library staff were Mrs. Bonnie Taylor and Mrs. Alice Lundy.

One reason for New Trier's status was the spirit of co-operation among the administrators, the instructors, and the pupils. The Faculty Council, elected by the faculty to serve as a link between the administration and the teachers, was headed this year by Mr. Gordon Jensen. Student Cabinet, which consisted of the leaders of all major student organizations, again served as a link between the administration and the student body.

Curriculum broadened to meet student demands

Two supplementary processes continued the curriculum development at New Trier during 1958-1959. Concentration on traditional academic subjects for college preparation become more intense at the same time that elaboration of courses for students of various inclinations was spreading. Both movements translated into action the spirit of the New Trier curriculum makers as expressed by Dr. Cornog: "To make available both the useful and the liberal arts, both the humane studies which represent the great areas of human knowledge, and the practical crafts and arts which can also enrich the person and increase one's competencies."

The New Trier curriculum program is planned by Dr. Cornog, Mr. Carpenter, and the School Board on the basis of recommendations of the Curriculum Committee of the faculty, the department heads, and various other sources. The Curriculum Committee, composed of representatives from both academic and non-academic departments and headed this year by Mr. Kenneth Funkhouser, discussed and acted upon matters which dealt with New Trier's over-all curriculum requirements. Suggestions for curriculum revisions in specific courses originated with departmental subcommittees and the department heads. All suggestions, both of the general and departmental scope, received extensive consideration before they were established in the school's program.

This year marked the introduction of a new freshman grammar program in the English department. In the fall a diagnostic test was given to all freshmen, the results of which served as an indication to the teachers of the students' needs. For all those students who received low grades on this test, a second, mid-term examination was administered. Those whose scores were still below standard took a special class two days a week to make up their grammar deficiencies before a final test.

In mathematics additional advanced courses for juniors and seniors extended to larger numbers the type of instruction begun with advanced placement students, who in turn edged into newer mathematical realms. Traditional mathematical subject materials and names merged into new titles and courses that included such topics as the theory of sets, Boolean algebra, probability statistics and theory, and symbolic logic.

The science department's curriculum in the fall added offerings in amateur radio and electronics. For the first time biology was opened to freshmen in "a" sections.

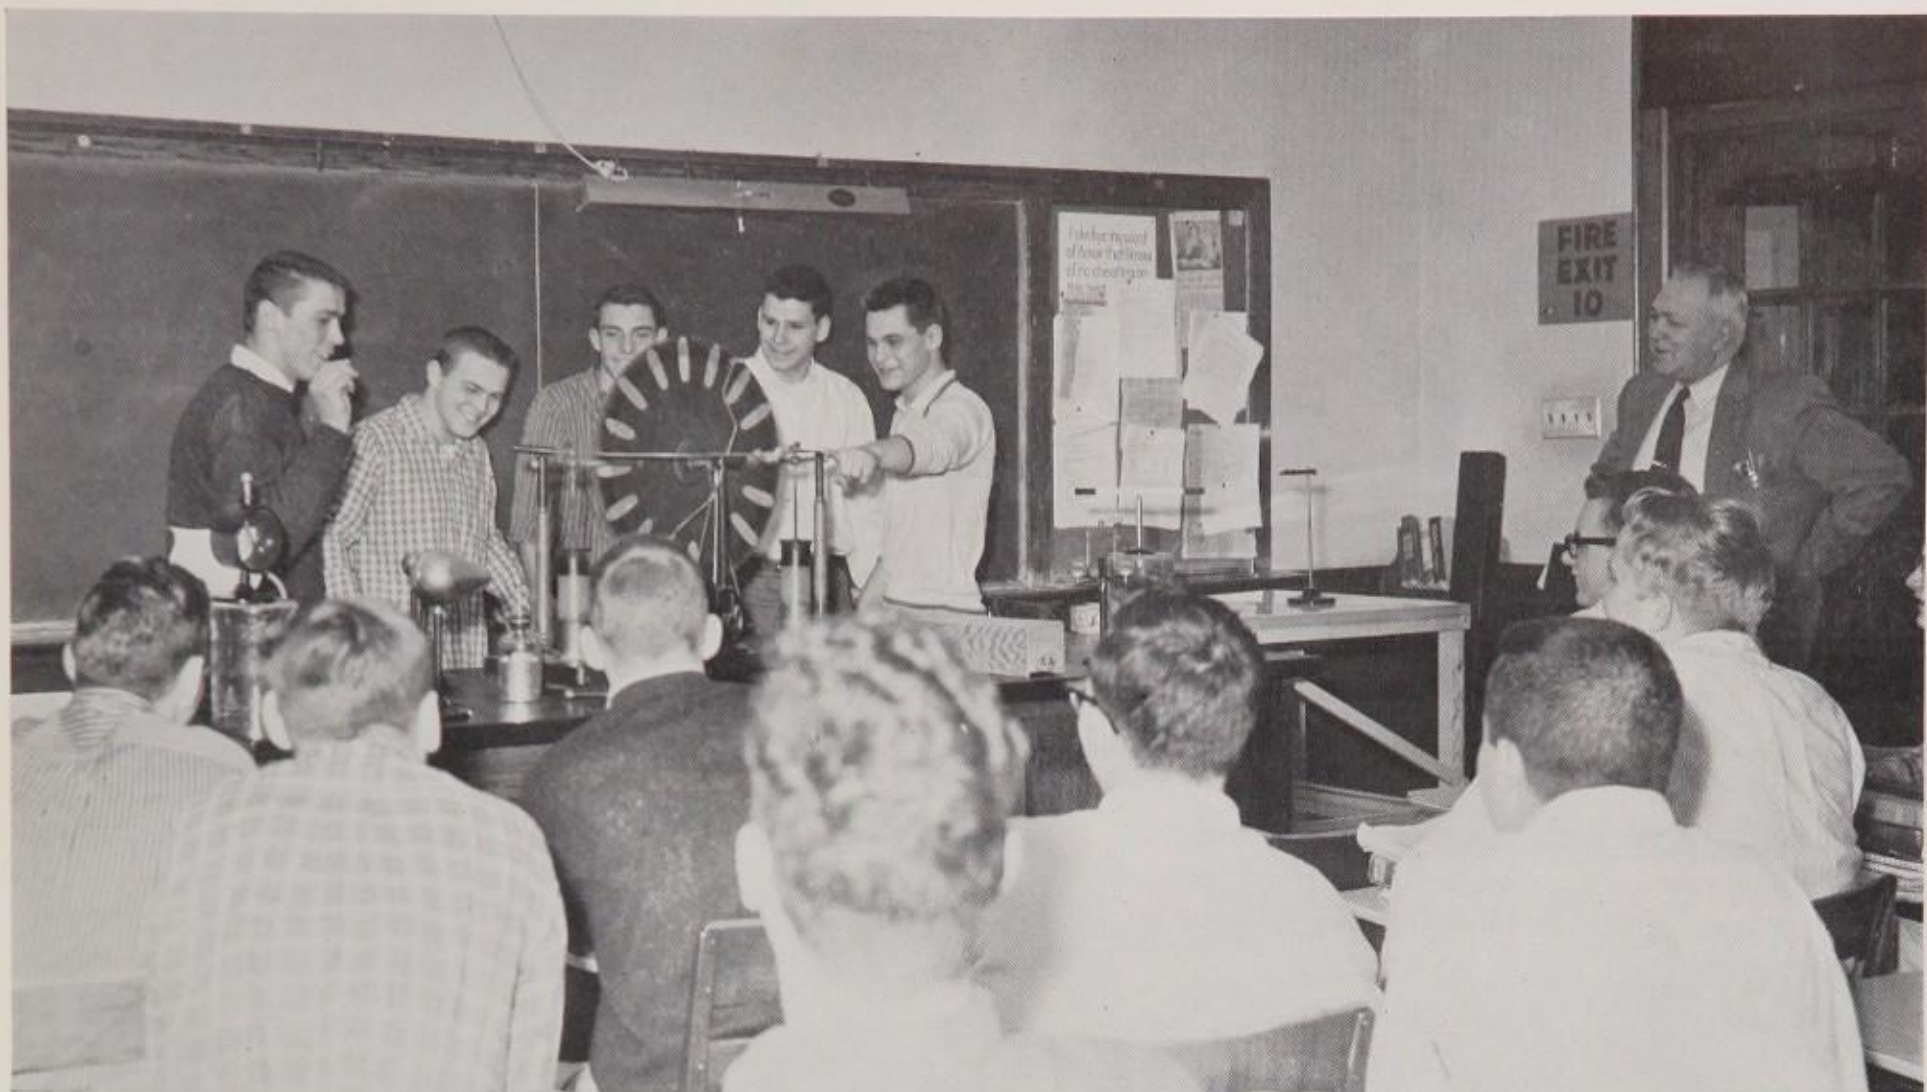

For 1958-1959 instruction in Spanish and German, as well as in Latin and French, became available to freshmen. In the upper years seminars and special sections for a few students extended the language instruction for those seeking advanced placement in college.

The art department capitalized on its reorganization of courses into one-period offerings, enabling large numbers of students to include art courses in their programs. The course in Art Appreciation II, previously a required major, was no longer needed and therefore was dropped from the curriculum at the beginning of the year. The music department continued its wide variety of groups for interested students at all levels of performance and emphasized a new course in composition. High enrollments cause the introduction of two new performing groups, the Madrigals and Honor Band. The drama department formed an Acting Workshop, studying aesthetics and interpretation in the theater.

Home Design and Construction Problems and Blue Print Reading, two new courses for both boys and girls, were added to the curriculum by the industrial arts department. The Minors IIs program was disbanded in February.

PHYSICS STUDENTS TEST THE FORCE OF STATIC ELECTRICITY

Long examinations introduced in June

A school-wide system of long examinations went into effect at the end of the second semester. Students gained experience in college-type examinations, and teachers sharpened their ideas of course content and purposes. Primarily, however, the long examinations constituted an effective means of instruction. By furnishing occasion for thorough review and by setting questions that demanded both comprehensive and penetrating views of a course, a long examination became the culmination of a year's study. Questions calling for essay-type answers required the student not merely to recall facts and concepts, though that was essential, but more importantly to demonstrate developed intellectual power of organizing and evaluating facts. What the student was able to do with what he had learned was the main concern. Examination questions were to search out the extent of the student's knowledge by requiring him to use it imaginatively. With this view, teachers prepared long examinations for New Trier students in all academic subjects.

The continuing growth of New Trier has brought a continuing growth of curriculum indicative of the school's desire to serve the students and the community.

Council stresses student unity

Under the leadership of Mike Belknap, president; Gail Sybrandt, vice-president; Lee High, secretary; and Pat Peterson, treasurer, Student Council endeavored to bring a closer unity between the students and Council through the utilization of the activities and organizations of the school. Chris Pullman, head of Unity and Spirit, was primarily responsible for carrying out this important job.

This year Student Council increased the number of students in the "Pep Club" to six hundred in order to carry out the idea of full student body participation in all the school's functions. In addition, Council assembled school pep rallies and adviser-room meetings to instill in the students enthusiasm and pride for New Trier. A number of week-end evening dances and parties, the "No Names", also added to the list of Council-promoted activities.

Under the direction of Jim Stirling and Gerry Wack, the student supervised study halls were kept in good order with enforcement of the rules and improved co-operation on the part of the student body as a whole.

Under the supervision of Rich Portes, the student lounge was again available to students for relaxation during free periods.

Council passed a bill stating that the lounge was opened only to seniors on alternate Fridays.

Due to the increase in enrollment at New Trier, parking around the school became a serious problem. Tom Stossel, head of the Safety Committee, with his fellow committeemen worked to increase the parking facilities and the efficiency which the parking situation demanded.

Also with the growth in number of the student body, the lunch hall became a real problem for the directors, Phyllis Hattis and John Kearney. An increasingly greater obligation fell on the student body to keep it in order. For the convenience of the students and for greater efficiency, food and beverage counters were located in key spots around the lunch hall.

Of course, the real factor in making a truly intelligent student body concerning social behavior lies in the ideals and beliefs which the students relish. From the club management duties of the Social Department under Jean Anderson, to the library services of the Special Activities Committee under Dick Bernstein, all the activities of Council worked with the goals of improving the conditions of the school and of creating opportunities for service and for recreation for every student in New Trier. For their part in making workable this idea of students' enjoying and profiting from high school, Student Council owed a special debt of gratitude to those faculty members who lent their time and energy to the numerous activities they sponsor. Mr. Gustafson and Mr. Bird, the sponsors of Council, devoted many hours and much interest to supervising its functions.

Girls' Club stresses friendliness and service to community

In an eventful and rewarding year, Girls' Club successfully fulfilled its two objectives—to be friendly and to be of service to others.

The Freshmen-Senior Party, which introduced freshman girls to New Trier life, started Girls' Club on its "friendly" campaign. "Get in style; smile," was this year's slogan for Friendly Week which featured the "Girl with the Friendliest Smile" contest. The week culminated with the annual Friendly Banquet at which the winners of the contest were announced.

The biannual daddy-daughter-dinner dance, "Isle of Papa," with a calypso theme, was held in February. It was necessary to hold it on two consecutive nights in order to accommodate the more than 1500 dads and daughters who attended. They had a delightful time as they dined, danced, and watched a number of father and daughter skits. In the spring Girls' Club held a tea for all girls new to New Trier this year.

Selling food to spectators at the football games this fall started Girls' Club on its drive to earn money to provide college scholarships for needy New Trier senior girls. Next on the agenda was the annual Magazine Drive which netted $32,000 this year. Awards to those girls who sold the most subscriptions were handed out in a clever "Wizard of Oz" assembly. The Spring Project was held in April. Again it was a fashion show and luncheon with proceeds going to the scholarship fund.

The two charity drives held in conjunction with Tri-Ship were both highly successful. All New Trier worked hard to collect 45,000 cans in the biannual Can Drive. The United Fund Drive held in March netted $41,000. Many girls' adviser rooms used such devices as bake sales and car washes to raise money.

Several innovations altered the organization of Girls' Club this year. A new elected position was instituted—Chairman of the Representatives, whose duty was to take charge of the meetings and handle various odd jobs. The two new board positions, Art and Public Relations, were formed from the old, single Publicity post. In addition, the Volunteer Club was started to give New Trier girls a chance to do social service work in institutions outside of school.

Essential to all of these activities were Girls' Club's many staffs and committees which this year, as in other years, contributed enormously to making Girls' Club a part of every girl's life at New Trier.

Charity drives and dances highlight Tri-ship year

In its 34th year, Tri-Ship again performed an extensive range of services to New Trier. The motive behind this service was to promote Tri-Ship's ideals of citizenship, sportsmanship, and fellowship. President Vance Etnyre had the responsibility for co-ordinating all of these programs. He was assisted by Vice-president Lee Bateman, who also acted as the senior class chairman and director of the senior representatives. Secretary Steve White had the job of keeping complete minutes of all the board meetings. Treasurer Pete Frantzen kept track of all the money involved in the enormous number of large and small financial functions. Since Tri-Ship is incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois, the responsibility involved in keeping the books was most important.

The officers and board members received a great deal of help from the representatives of the four classes. Don Haider, junior class chairman, and Dick Wolff, sophomore class chairman, acted as co-ordinators between their class representatives and the board. In addition, Wolff directed the Sophomore Messenger Corps and handled incidentals at Parents' Association meetings, Dads' Club meetings, and Freshman Parents' Night. The freshman class chairman, Gordy Adams, had the huge task of getting all of the new freshman members organized and active.

However, it was eleven committees which actually performed all the various services rendered by Tri-Ship. The Usher Corps, headed by Bob Jeffers, was one of the oldest committees. It was indispensable at such events as Lagniappe, Plain and Fancy, concerts, and some sixty others.

The Traffic Squad was directed by Ned Mason. Over 150 members, selected from the junior and senior classes, directed traffic at athletic events, concerts, and plays, and handled the daily flow of cars before and after school.

The Service Committee, of which Keith Weber was the chairman, provided door guards during lunch periods, manned the information booth, and ran the student employment service.

One of the main-stays of New Trier's extra-curricular life was its dances. Steve Lane and his committee selected the bands and decorated for the five annual dances spaced throughout the year.

One detailed job which required much patience was that of the Ticket Committee, headed by Chuck Sethness. The committee had to keep track of ticket sales not only for the Tri-Ship dances, but also for the many functions in the 1600-seat auditorium. The distribution of programs at football games was another of its responsibilities.

Don Merz was president of the N Club, which became a part of Tri-Ship last year. As a part of Tri-Ship, the club is no longer a purely social organization, but is one which gives service to the school.

Heading the Arrangements Committee was Dick Gritschke. Under his leadership, this organization handled the many odd jobs which came up during the year. Career Night and Homecoming ceremonies were two of its many activities this year.

The Dinner Committee, headed by Chuck Powell, had charge of Tri-Ship's two largest banquets, the Football Banquet and the Mother-Son Banquet. They provided decorations, menus, and entertainment for these, as well as refreshments for Tri-Ship dances.

Tri-Ship concerns itself with service not only to the school, but also to the community. The Clubroom Charities Committee, headed by Pete Miller, sponsored the United Fund and Canned Foods Drives along with Girls' Club. By promoting these drives, Tri-Ship furthered its ideal of good citizenship by giving every student the opportunity to be of service to others. These drives proved to be highly successful this year. New Trier students collected a total of 44,400 cans, the largest number in New Trier history, and surpassed the goal of $3500 for the United Fund Drive.

The faculty sponsors of Tri-Ship were Mr. Lightner, general adviser; Mr. Clark, dance adviser; Mr. Rude, Lagniappe adviser; Mr. Frantzen, N Club adviser; Mr. James, Usher Corps adviser; Mr. Jensen, Service adviser; and Mr. Esarey, Traffic Squad adviser.

'59 Lagniappe, "Be My Guest," review-type show

One of Tri-Ship's biggest undertakings is Lagniappe. This spectacular production has become an annual tradition since its first performance in 1939. This year's Lagniappe, Be My Guest, was the product of nine months of work, beginning last May with the choosing of board positions, continuing through the long sessions of writing the show during the summer, proceeding with the casting in the fall, and extending through lengthy rehearsals until opening night, January 21st. This year's show was different from most earlier productions. It was a review type of show, the theme of which was the range of entertainments enjoyed by people from various walks of life. The show included everything from Beatnik poetry to the Warsaw Concerto to a hillbilly hoe-down. Narrator Shorty Ade introduced eight individuals who presented their ideas of the best in entertainment. Art Bernstein, Georgeann Berman, John Reeder, Sue VanHecke, Dave Healy, Lois Comar, Bill Fowler, and John Karraker each presented a separate facet of enter-

Mike Sennott and Sarah Layton-Taylerson undertook the weighty job of organizing and directing the student production. The orchestra was directed by Bob Moreen. Lois Greenfield had charge of the chorus. Terry Yeager, assisted by Andy Adler, directed the dance group.

Technically, too, the show was exceptional, probably the best yet presented here at New Trier. Mike Birdlebough and Robin Converse, technical heads, along with Jay Porter, head of the lighting crew, and Chris Holland, head of the stage crew, had one of the best equipped high school stages in the country with which to work.

This year Lagniappe was dedicated to Mr. Jerry Kelley, a former sponsor of Lagniappe, for his indispensable help. The staff felt that a great vote of thanks was due, too, to Mr. Roland Rude, a sponsor without whose encouragement and advice such a show would not have been possible.

The publicity for Lagniappe, as for all other Tri-Ship activities, was handled by the Public Relations Committee headed by Bruce Bishop.

Besides the great pleasure the audience, cast, and crew derived from Be My Guest, the show yielded a great service. The proceeds made up a large portion of the Tri-Ship scholarship fund.

Six dramatic productions experiment with new techniques

New Trier's drama department, sponsoring classes and the extra-curricular Drama Club, put its talent to good use this school year. The department offered one new course called Acting Workshop.

The four officers' positions in Drama Club this year were filled by Bob Rovin, president; Georgeann Berman, vice-president; Debbie Danielson, secretary; and Scott McCausland, treasurer. Along with other board members, they were assisted by their two faculty sponsors, Mr. Miner T. Coburn and Mr. Roland V. Rude.

The drama department's first presentation was My Three Angels, directed by Mr. Carlton F. Buerger.

When New Trier presented its Creative Arts Workshop early in December, the dramatic contribution was made by the members of the Acting Workshop class with their presentation of E. E. Cummings' Santa Claus under the direction of Miss Gahagan.

Then in February a set of three one-act plays was produced with gratifying results. The plays chosen were adaptations of short stories: The Boor, by Anton Chekhov; The Devil and Daniel Webster, by Stephen Vincent Benet; and The Garden Party, by Katherine Mansfield. Mr. Nelson Lehman, Mr. Buerger, and Miss Gahagan, respectively, directed the plays.

In March members of the Workshop made two field trips to see plays in Chicago. The first of these was The Girls in 509, a comedy by Howard Teichman.

The second play that the class saw was

The last play of the year was presented on April 3rd and 4th. Mr. Roland Rude took the responsibility of directing Thornton Wilder's The Skin of Our Teeth, which involved highly complex operations for the stage crews under the direction of stage-manager Scott McCausland. Over all, the crews were able to make better use of the facilities than last year's crews, thanks to another year of experience and the supervision of Mrs. Carol Gill, production director.

Music groups attract more students

The music department at New Trier completed a year of exciting productions under Dr. William Peterman and his staff.

Three bands were formed instead of two. The Concert and new Honor Bands combined to perform at the football games..

The co-ordinated dance, drama, and opera groups again presented the Creative Arts Workshop. This program was put forth not as pure entertainment, but rather as an experimentation with various art forms. The annual Christmas Festival was given December 14. Approximately 1000 students, members of the various choral and instrumental groups, took part. This concert was recorded and repeated on a radio broadcast. The Spring Festival was held May 3 in the gym. Several instrumental soloists appeared in the concert. Several smaller concerts were given during the year. On February 8, the Honor Band, Concert Band, and Senior Choir presented a concert and the annual Senior Ensemble-Orchestra Concert followed on March 20.

This year the opera was Plain and Fancy. Two casts presented four performances from May 20 through 23.

The final concert of the year will be a performance by the bands June 7 at the Wilmette Bowl. This was a very strong musical year at New Trier. The quality of the training the performers received made the music department a powerful creative force in school life.

Debaters add to trophy collection

This year debaters look back on one of the finest years in the history of debate at New Trier. Through the expert coaching of Mr. Ralph McGee, New Trier teams made a record unequalled by any other school in the state. Debating the question, "Resolved: That the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of education," the varsity won first place in eleven out of thirteen major tournaments. Chief among the New Trier victories were the tournaments at Illinois State Normal University at Bloomington, Illinois University (Chicago Campus), and Northwestern University. With Evely Laser and Ralph Miller on the affirmative and James Graham and Marc Rosen on the negative, the varsity placed first in the Metropolitan Debate Union for the fourth consecutive year. The four went on to place second in the Illinois High School Speech Association State Tournament and first in the National Forensic League State Contest. They qualified for the National contest for the third time in four years. To conclude the year, New Trier won the National Forensic League Sweepstakes Trophy for outstanding all-around achievement in speech activities.

The second varsity team, composed of Mary Franz, Allen Gray, William Johnson, and Jeffrey Sampson, had equal success, winning the first place trophy at the Blue Island Lincoln Day Tournament and first place awards in the tournaments at Evanston High School and Northern Illinois University.

VARSITY DEBATERS MILLER, ROSEN, GRAHAM, AND LASER

Subvarsity and sophomore teams also had remarkable success, winning first place in several important tournaments, notably the ones held at East Aurora High School, Evanston High School, and Northern Illinois University.

Increasing interest in speech activities at New Trier is evident from the tremendous growth of the New Trier chapter of the National Forensic League. In the bottom half of Illinois chapters four years ago, New Trier's chapter now ranks first in the state, holding eighty-eight degrees for participation in speech activities.

The results of New Trier debaters' hard work in 1958-59 surpassed even the outstanding achievements of last year. The success of the subvarsity and sophomore debaters is a good indication that New Trier debaters will continue their outstanding achievements in future years.

"Inklings" co-ordinates art work and articles

Inklings, as New Trier's one creative writing outlet, has the challenging task of selecting and publishing the poetry and prose which the school's interested students contribute.

This year, Inklings strove for more variety in the types of material published while endeavoring to keep the quality of writing high. At meetings throughout the year, the staff, under the supervision of the sponsor, Mr. Nelson Lehman, and the editor, Pam Zoline, read, discussed, and selected the material for the 1959 magazine. They worked to encourage the contribution of humor and prose, as well as poetry. Another goal was that of making a larger percentage of the student body aware of their opportunity to take part in creating Inklings.

There was a major change in Inklings' art policy this year. The art staff, under the leadership of Art Editor Millea Levin, concentrated on "motivated art," which is directly related to the individual pieces of writing.

Once again Inklings worked closely with the creative writing group, an extra-curricular, informal activity for students who meet weekly under Mr. Lehman's guidance to read and discuss each other's literary efforts. Students who participated agreed that the class proved invaluable in giving encouragement in writing and experience in criticism.

German and French magazines publish student work

Again this year New Trier's foreign language department sponsored two publications: Le Flambeau, in French, and Schreiberei, in German. Not only do these enable students to merge their curricular and extra-curricular interests, but they also provide for expression in a foreign language and experience in the phases of publication. Material selected from the contributions of the various language classes formed the content of the two language magazines. All work on the foreign language magazines, from selection of basic copy to final mimeographing, was done by students.

Le Flambeau, the French publication, was again sponsored by Mrs. M. L. Morris. The student staff, headed by Editor Judy Wiles and assisted by Jessica Cohler, Ann Freeman, and Dee Swanson, produced a magazine of high quality, containing articles of many different types. In the spring the staff carried on a highly successful subscription campaign. Prizes, plaques in French, were awarded to the first three French classes reaching one hundred per cent subscription. The cover this year was the work of Mary Hildebrandt; Pam Zoline did the other art work.

The German publication, Schreiberei, received its material both from voluntary contributors and required assignments in German classes. Guided by Mr. Gordon Jensen, sponsor, Editor Arlene Irvine and other staff members selected, prepared, and arranged material for the magazine. Schreiberei has a widely diversified content, including biographies, anecdotes, stories, and poems.

Two other language publications—Praeco, the Latin magazine, and El Pregunton, the Spanish magazine—were not published this year because they had no faculty sponsors, but the language department hopes to resume their publication when it becomes possible.

Le Flambeau, la publication française, fut publiée encore une fois sous la direction de Madame M. L. Morris. Le corps des élèves, dirigé par l'éditeur Judy Wiles et aidé par Jessica Cohler, Ann Freeman, et Dee Swansen, a produit une revue de bonne qualité, contenant des articles de nombreux genres. Au printemps le corps a exercé une campagne de souscription victorieuse. Comme prix, des plaques inscrites en française furent adjudgées aux trois classes qui ont parvenu les premières à une souscription de cent pour cent. Cette année la couverture est l'oeuvre de Mary Hildebrandt, tandis que les dessins sur les pages sont les oeuvres de Pam Zoline.

Schreiberei, eine Zeitschrift in deutscher Sprache, nahm einzelne Beiträge und schriftliche Schularbeiten an. Arlene Irvine leitete die Schülerredaktion unter Beaufsichtigung von Herrn Gordon Jensen. Manuskripte für Schreiberei wurden ausgewählt, geprüft, und zusammengestellt, um einen möglichst verschiedenartigen Inhalt — darunter Biographien, Anekdoten, Erzählungen und Gedichte, zu bilden.

Playback introduces central theme in narration

In the second year of its independence from Echoes, the staff of Playback 1959 have introduced a change in format in their record. Rather than having a conglomeration of events, they have attempted to use a central theme in the narration throughout the record. On this basis the staff hoped to present "an accurate sound picture of New Trier."

For the second year, the faculty sponsor of Playback was Mr. David McKendall. He and this year's co-editors, Mary Jo Black and Rich Samuels, worked together to co-ordinate the activities of the various Playback committees.

After the selection of this year's narrators, Roger Nelson and Trina Vanderwicken by means of individual try-outs, the publicity committee, headed by Pat Matson, began its successful campaign, using the slogan "a thinking man's record."

This committee also handled the designing and production of the cover, which had a picture of a microphone and tape reel on one side and a picture of the Playback Board and a short history on the reverse side. Using newly purchased recording equipment, the technical staff, headed by Dave Schoenberg, recorded all major school activities throughout the year. After editing the tape recordings, the script committee, headed by Sheila Browne, wrote the transitions between the taped selections. Joe Glossberg headed the business committee.

This year, as in past years, the New Trier Photo Service was an invaluable aid to Echoes, the News, and the school's publicity program. Under the guidance of its sponsor, Mr. D. Smith, the service produced over 3500 photographs of which 1200 were used for New Trier publications.

Senior Larry Myers was the chief Echoes photographer; his assistants were Peter Topaz, and Sheldon Lytton. James Hicks took all the adviser room shots. The advanced photography class also helped to make many of the pictures.

Not as glamorous but just as important was the dark room work done by Sheldon Lytton and Charles Finkle. Lytton handled the developing of all negatives. Finkle, with his assistants Joe Steinberg, Joe Mercer, Roger Anderson, and Bob Franden, was in charge of printing pictures.

This year the photo lab added to its list of duties a new service—the taking of all school publicity photographs. Peter Topaz, assisted by Jim Walker, headed the new publicity department which took most of the pictures that were printed in local publications. Its services were also available to many school groups.

News continues to produce award-winning paper

This year, as in the past, the New Trier News has offered an invaluable service to the student body by presenting the news and publishing stimulating editorials and columns. As a result, the News won an All American "honor rating" from the National Scholastic Press Association for the fifth consecutive year. As compared with papers published by other high schools of the same school size, having the same method and frequency of publication, the News was ranked especially high in typography, news coverage, and sports.

Editor-in-chief Sue Gelfand co-ordinated the various phases of producing the paper. Managing Editor Wendi Griffin handled the advertising and business aspects of the paper. Assignment Editor Carol Rieger directed the junior reporters in collecting information for News. In their respective positions, Feature Editor Margie Lindauer and Sports Editor Bob MacDonald were responsible for both the writing and technical aspects of their pages.

Assistant Editors Sue Sprigel on News, Pam Zoline on Features, and John Hart on Sports helped in preparing the stories. Copy Editor Margot Adler received all material for the final checking. Judi Cone performed a wide range of duties including gathering pictures, as Associate Editor. Each Page Editor handled paste-ups and the technical aspects of the paper. Art work was done by Art Editor Tom Siporin. Mr. R. Boyle, faculty sponsor for the News, supervised every aspect of the publication.

The Business Staff, newly formed this year and headed by Bill Yale, solicited advertisers for the News. Mr. J. P. Judge was faculty advisor of the group.

'59 "Echoes" uses candid photographs of student body

The staff of Echoes of 1959 began the year with one purpose in mind: to produce a yearbook with the same high quality previous books have had. Throughout the year they worked to maintain this high standard of excellence.

All lay-out and page design in Echoes of 1959, including the planning of the cover, was done by Phil Livingston. Pictures were scheduled and notices sent by Assistant Editor Jane Barack. Linda Alberts supervised the entire job of write-up, including the problem of headlines and picture captions. June Leow typed all this material. All non-professional photography, except snapshots, was done by members of the Photo Service, whose chief for Echoes was Larry Myers. The cover photograph was taken by Peter Topaz, assistant head of the Photo Service. The many details necessary to the production of Echoes were attended to by faculty sponsor Mrs. Edith B. Welliver and Jim Green, editor-in-chief. Numerous junior assistants also worked at all of these tasks.

Echoes of 1959 was printed by the Clio Press of the Economy Advertising Company in Iowa City, Iowa. All professional photography, which includes the individual portraits and the large group pictures taken on the notorious "Bernie Days," was done by the Bernie Studio of Evanston, Illinois. Engravings for Echoes were made by the Jahn and Ollier Engraving Company of Chicago, Illinois, and the covers were produced by the S. K. Smith Company, also of Chicago.

All other work, including lay-out, write-ups and non-professional photography, was done by the students of the Echoes staff of 1959.

SERVICE GROUPS AND CLUBS

Service groups give invaluable aid to New Trier

At a school of the magnitude of New Trier, the student service groups play a vital role in keeping the school's program functioning smoothly.

The Public Address Corps, under the faculty sponsorship of Mr. Rockey, installed and operated sound equipment at many school functions. They provided and controlled microphones and other sound equipment at dances and banquets and played records regularly in the lunch hall during lunch periods. The head of the Public Address Corps this year was Bob McLaughlin, assisted by Dave MacBryde.

The Fine Arts Supervisors aided the library staff in the well-equipped fine arts room of the New Trier library. They had the responsibility for the care and the supervision of all record equipment. With their aid, students were able to spend free periods listening to classical and semi-classical music, narrated poetry and prose and foreign language recordings.

The audio-visual apparatus was in the hands of Mr. Ickes' and Mrs. Dodge's Audio-Visual Staff. The staff had full charge of movies, tapes, and slides, as well as all equipment involved with them. Two rooms, especially equipped, were in full time use for movie projection, and many other rooms were used occasionally.

The junior and senior girls who served at least two periods a week in the nurses' office as members of Service Club gave invaluable help to the nurses. The girls were well trained in the Red Cross Home Nursing class. Members assisted Mrs. Schoenenberger and Mrs. Savage by taking temperatures, cleaning equipment, doing filing, and performing many other time-consuming tasks.

New Trier Guard serves school and community

Serving not only New Trier but also the community as a whole was the New Trier Guard, which, again this year, was under the leadership of the swimming coach, Mr. Dave Robertson, and the student heads, Paddie Hahn and Pete Heitman. The New Trier Guard was comprised of fifty members, both boys and girls, who were carefully selected from many applicants.

One of their chief duties was to teach grammar school children of the township how to swim. A large number of children participated in these classes, which were held Saturday mornings throughout the year. Without the Guard's assistance, the instructors would not have been able to teach such large classes. It took many guard members to handle a single Saturday morning class. Another important function of the Guards was to preserve the safety of those using the school pool on Wednesday nights, when all the community is given the opportunity to swim in New Trier's pool. The boys had the further responsibility of supervising the pool after school. All in all, the Guard was the backbone of the entire swimming organization. It has built up a swimming program of which all New Trier and the community can justly be proud.

Clubs program organized under Student Council

One of the most important parts of New Trier's comprehensive extra-curricular activities is its clubs program. The work of coordinating the club activities, especially for the Hallowe'en Party, is handled by the Council of Clubs, which is composed of the presidents of all New Trier clubs, and by the Student Council, which charters them.

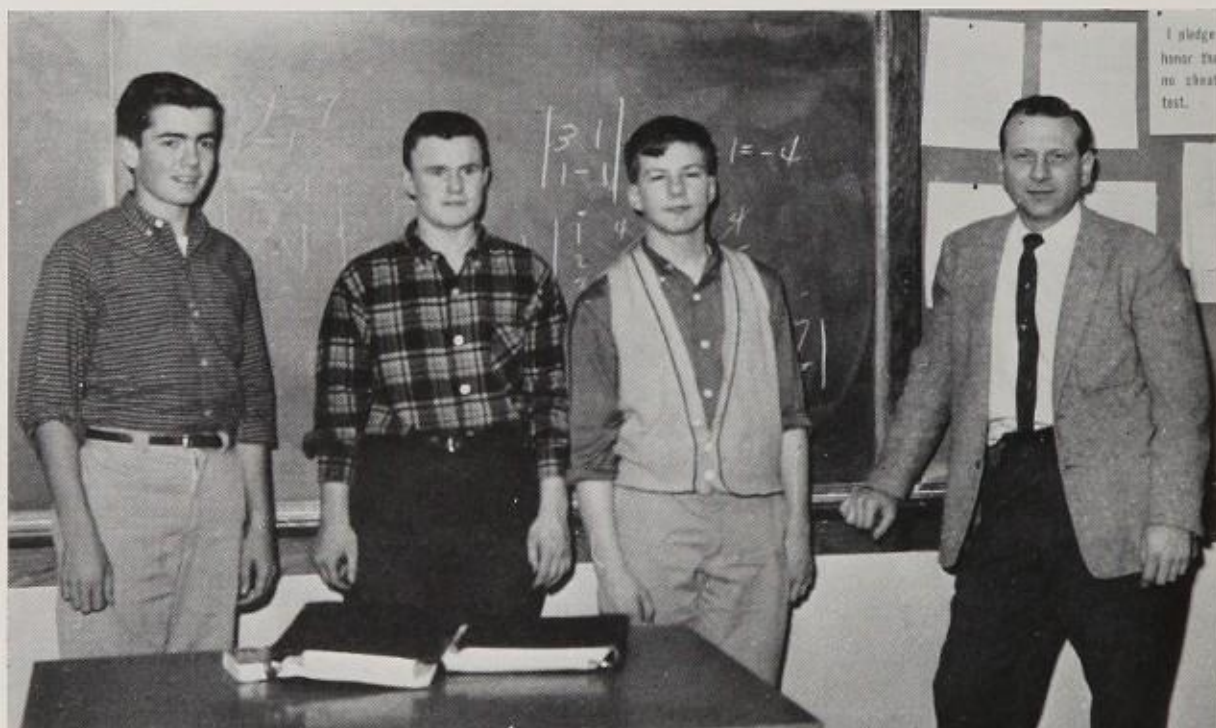

Many clubs have been organized to give students further experience in the academic fields. This year the mathematics department's Bernoullians' major project was the exploration of the mathematical basis and operation of computers. The club, under Mark Ferdinand and Sponsor Mr. Paumer, made a series of reports on this study. The Freshman Math Club, whose sponsor was Mr. Lill, held meetings periodically during the year. On two field trips the Math-Engineering Club saw some of the industrial applications of high school mathematics and science courses. The trips, arranged by Mr. Paumer, sponsor, and Ed Martin, president, were to Republic Steel and to Standard Oil of Indiana.

Heading the Rocket Club, Mr. Compton and Jay Peck kept its members informed of the latest technical advances in rocketry and provided instruction and supervision in the design, construction, and launching of solid fuel rockets. Rockets built by the club's members were prepared for launching at the Army's Camp McCoy.

Under the direction of the sponsor, Mr. Rockey, and President John Rau, the Radio Club's "hams" operated their amateur radio station. The Garden Club members carried out their own projects in the greenhouse. The sponsor of the club was Mr. Hoyt and the president, Al Lucas.

Every foreign language offered at New Trier has a supplementary club. The French Club, under its sponsor, Mrs. Morris, and its president, Jess Cohler, met frequently to practice speaking French. Among its events this year were a brunch, a Christmas play, and a luncheon and tour of the French section of the Art Institute. The German Club acquainted students with Germany and gave them practice in German speech through an excursion to a German restaurant and movie. The proceeds from its "Hula Hoop" contest at the Hallowe'en Party and its dues sent Care packages to Germany. Mr. McDowell and Arlene Irvine led the club. The Spanish Club under the direction of Miss Mair, sponsor, and Carol Beringer, president, held regular meetings in Spanish throughout the year, including a piñata party. The programs of the Latin Club with games and special projects gave members a chance for original work in the language and for study of the part that Roman civilization has played in world culture. Travel pictures were shown; a Christmas party was held, and a Roman banquet was presented by the club for all students of Latin. The co-sponsors were Miss Breidenbach and Mrs. Kidd, and consuls, Heather Hasse and Peter Sloss.

Clubs extend members' fields of interests

The Geography Club highlighted its year with Christmas and spring parties, a trip to a map-making firm, and programs with guest speakers who had lived or traveled abroad. Mr. H. Peterson and Bob Ward headed this club.

The New Trier chapter of the Future Teachers of America was designed to stimulate the interest of juniors and seniors in teaching and fields related to this profession, such as guidance, counseling, and recreational leadership work. Sponsor Mrs. Smutny and President Sissy Schram led the club.

orientation of exchange students at New Trier and in this area.

The Bridge Club provided fans with a chance to learn the fundamentals and fine points of the game at bi-weekly bridge games in the lounge. Its sponsor was Mr. Lightner, and its president, Marshall Goldowsky. All students who wanted to become acquainted with professions in psychology were invited to join the Psychology Club. This year, under the direction of Mr. Brull and Richard Morgan, a series of speeches and movies were presented. All student collectors were eligible to join the Stamp and Coin Club, sponsored by Mr. Neuman. At the informal gatherings students examined collections, bought and sold stamps and coins, and studied various phases of collecting. The presidents were Chris Stephens for stamps and Tom Klein for coins. The purpose of the Chess Club, under Mr. Gerol and Michael Fried, was to give enthusiasts the opportunity to play with other interested students at New Trier. A team of members also played other schools in the area.

To introduce New Trier to the sport of fencing, the Fencing Club was organized this year with a program of weekly instruction and practice sessions. Heading the club were Mr. Labadie, sponsor, and Chuck Bloomfield, president. The Ski Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Larsen, provided students with the opportunity to ski. This winter the club made one trip to Mt. Telemark, Wisconsin. The purpose of the newly revived Square Dance Club was to offer boys and girls a chance to become acquainted through square dancing. Under the leadership of Mrs. B. Johnson, sponsor, and co-chairmen Barb Schulz and Pat Romane, the club met the fourth Wednesday of the month to plan dances held the first Friday of every month. Another newly formed club was the Dog Club; its purpose was to promote interest in the training and care of dogs. Under the leadership of Mr. Wagner and Sue Cotter, the club held obedience training classes, field trips, and lectures.

Musical Club, under Mrs. Kidd and Judy Gathercoal, promoted the enjoyment of music through programs at meetings and through trips to musical performances in the Chicago area. The Senior and Junior Music Clubs met to give musical students a chance to perform for each other, to participate in ensemble groups, and to enjoy the company of people with the same interests. The Junior Music Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Bradburn and Marilyn Schuster, held an annual dinner which was followed by a program given by students and their parents.

The Lens Club, formed for people interested in photography, was headed this year by Mr. D. Smith and Donald Cohee. Meetings featured demonstrations, lectures, discussions, and films. A snapshot contest was held every six weeks. The Creative Hobby Club, rechartered as the Model Airplane, Boat, and Railroad Club, was sponsored by Mr. Koser; its president was Judd Rosen. The Art League's programs were to interest students in art and to encourage talented students.

G.A.A.'s athletic program more active than ever

During the school year of 1958-1959, the Girls' Athletic Association board, under the leadership of President Nancy Wilson, Vice-President Mary Rainey, Treasurer Dianne Doke, and Secretary Susan Vinnedge, established many precedents. The reduction in size of the G.A.A. board from thirty-four to twenty-one and the change from adviser room to physical education class teams were two examples of the many successful changes they made.

The new team plan was coordinated by Catherine Wolf and Miss Ann Brown, faculty chairman of intramurals. Spirit and participation under the new plan were excellent and were greatly aided by the expert supervision of the members of the girls' physical education department: Mrs. Ella Abbott, Miss Carolyn Cress, Miss Vivian Frazier, Mrs. Margaret Hoopes, Mrs. Barbara Johnson, Miss Joann Johnson, Miss Betty King, Miss Dorothy Niemi, Miss Constance Ramsey, Miss Nancy Sorenson, Mrs. Lenore Sutton, and the chairman of the department, Miss Iris Boulton.

Adviser room participation awards were presented every season to the adviser rooms with the highest percentage of G.A.A. participants. This year the awards were won by Mrs. Courtney's, Miss Studder's, Mrs. B. Johnson's, Mrs. Bishop's, Miss Frazier's, Miss Kelso's, Miss King's, Miss Karl's, and Miss White's adviser rooms.

One of the highlights of the year was membership week. At a "gym-jam" held the first night of membership week, the girls planned skits for the final initiation ceremonies. This year for the first time in New Trier G.A.A. history, nine boys had the distinction of becoming honorary members of G.A.A. because they had participated in last year's water ballet. The week's fun was brought to a climax when over three hundred girls were welcomed into membership at an impressive candlelight ceremony following the banquet.

The winter award assembly paid high tribute to the girls receiving awards. Thirty-six received their numerals and forty-three received chevrons. Thirty-seven girls received the 300 point award. The highest awards presented at this assembly, the 1000 point awards, were given to Katherine Carroll, Lorna Wilson, and Catherine Wolf.

The major project of the year was the Dance Program, presented March 14 under the joint sponsorship of the girls' gym department and the G.A.A. This dance demonstration was presented by a cast of 130 students. Miss Suzanne Keating, who was in charge of the program, was assisted by Mrs. Barbara Johnson; the student head of dance, Judith Shelby; and her assistants, Margot Palaith and Diane Sherer. The members of the advanced dance class and their instructors selected the music, planned the choreography, and taught the groups.

FALL SEASON

The fall season found spirited tournaments taking place in both soccer and hockey. Stephanie Aden, assisted by Patricia Behrendt and manager Susan Guelich, directed the soccer tournament, and Kathleen Kindred, with managers Mary Lou Heineken, Michele Martin, and Katherine Garcia, ran the hockey tournament. The seniors emerged victorious in the hockey tournament with the sophomores the runners-up. Later in the season the senior girls' first team faced the varsity Laura McGrew and her managers, Caroline Robinson, Heidi Richardson, and Bonnie Langford, directed the tennis tournament. Barbara Bingham was the winner of the freshman tournament; Carol Hartman and Catherine King were upper-class winners. Phyllis Hattis won the advanced singles, and she and Judith Solomon took the advanced doubles.

In conjunction with the boys' intramural sports program, co-ed badminton was tried for the first time. Those present at each session played tournament games.

Officials were headed by Valerie Nash and, later, by Catherine King with Susan Alexander as her assistant. Over twenty girls helped to referee.

Riding was directed by Barbara Schultz, assisted by Charlotte Booth. The girls brought the season to a successful finish with a demonstration of jumping and other techniques for their parents and friends.

New winter sports attract many girls

MID-SEASON

There was a great deal of enthusiasm for volleyball during the mid-season. The physical education class tournament, in which over four hundred girls participated weekly, was directed by Joan Uebelhack and managers Nancy King, Heidi Prentice, Christina Swanson, and Elizabeth True.

Jean Gutsche headed tumbling and recreational games. Her games managers were Mary Lou Bogart, Sylvia Welch, Elizabeth Morava, and Barbara Moore; her tumbling manager was Ann Lapperre.

Swimming was under the leadership of Susan Harris and her managers, Elizabeth Everett, Chari Yost, Deborah Lucas, and Linda Ware. During mid-season a special course in synchronized swimming was offered.

WINTER SEASON

The long winter season somewhat limited the selection of sports, but to meet the demand several new sports were added to the available activities. The new ones were team deck tennis, volley tennis, indoor track, and apparatus work. Fencing for juniors and seniors and figure skating were also offered.

Basketball, headed by Mary Maynard and her managers, Margaret DeRocco, Karen Seehafer, Alice Maynard, and Su-

SPRING SEASON

During the spring season softball, tennis, and archery were offered. Ann Marie Mooney headed softball, and Mary Cooksey, Bonnie Boyer, and Melinda Stanley were her managers. The head of archery was Jean Gutsche, and her managers were Barbara Erhart, Carol Schram, and Cynthia Christofferson.

Lifesaving, which is offered every other year alternating with the water ballet, attracted over one hundred girls. The course was taught by Miss Brown and Miss Sorenson, assisted by the girls' pool guard under the leadership of Susan Harris.

Lacrosse was directed by Kathleen Kindred and her managers, Grace Edwards, Helen Hartray, and LeAnne Chrisman. The big attraction of the lacrosse season was the frosh-junior versus soph-senior game.

New Trier fans see exciting year in football

The Indians opened the season with a 33-7 victory over Harrison Tech. Full-backs George McCabe and Dave Peterson each scored two touchdowns and tailback Bill Thornton added another; Don Glanz kicked the extra points. However, the following week the Green Wave lost its first Suburban League game, a heartbreaking thriller, to Oak Park, always a strong team, 7-6. Fumbles in crucial situations cost New Trier the victory, as the Indians lost the ball three times on the Oak Park goal line. Ned Mason, Tom Seng, and Co-captain Dick Bernstein played excellent defensive games for the losing New Trier cause.

Highland Park became New Trier's first Suburban League victim the next Saturday as the Indians fought to a 21-6 victory. Wolf Dietrich roused the crowd by scoring a touchdown, a very unusual feat for a tackle. Morton was the next team to fall before the Green Wave, as the Indians came from behind with a last-quarter rally scoring two touchdowns to beat the Mustangs 25-14.

On the following Saturday the Evanston Wildkits handed New Trier its worst defeat of the season, winning by a score of 19-0. Again in this game, as in others, fumbles were the primary cause of the Indians' troubles. The Indians came back the next week to overpower Waukegan 21-14, as Dave Peterson's fine offensive play and Heineman's two pass interceptions highlighted the New Trier victory.

The Indians played their finest game of the season against powerful, unbeaten, untied Proviso but lost 13-6 when Proviso returned a punt for a touchdown in the third quarter. Bill Thornton scored New Trier's only touchdown of the game on a reverse late in the game. The entire squad played excellent football, giving Proviso its roughest and closest game of the year. The defensive team played an especially fine game, holding the Proviso offense scoreless throughout the first half.

The Green Wave closed its season with a disheartening 21-7 loss to a surprisingly strong Niles team. The varsity placed fifth in Suburban League competition.

Varsity letters were given to seniors Dave Adams, Steve Applegate, Mike Belknap, Ron Horton, Dick Kolehmainen, Bill Lederer, Nelson Lehman, Joel Leisch, Henry Parker, Dave Peterson, Ben Porter, Ed Sleight, Bill Thornton, and Keith Weber. Junior letter winners were Paul Culberg, Don Haider, Rolf Heinemann, Bruce Irons, Dave Moeller, Ken Ortegal, Jim Rome, Wally Wilkey, and Connie Will.

Several seniors received certificates since they had been given varsity letters last year. They were Lee Bateman, Dick Bernstein, Al Caskey, Wolf Dietrich, Tom Frank, Bob Herbert, Ned Mason, Steve Merrick, and Tom Seng.

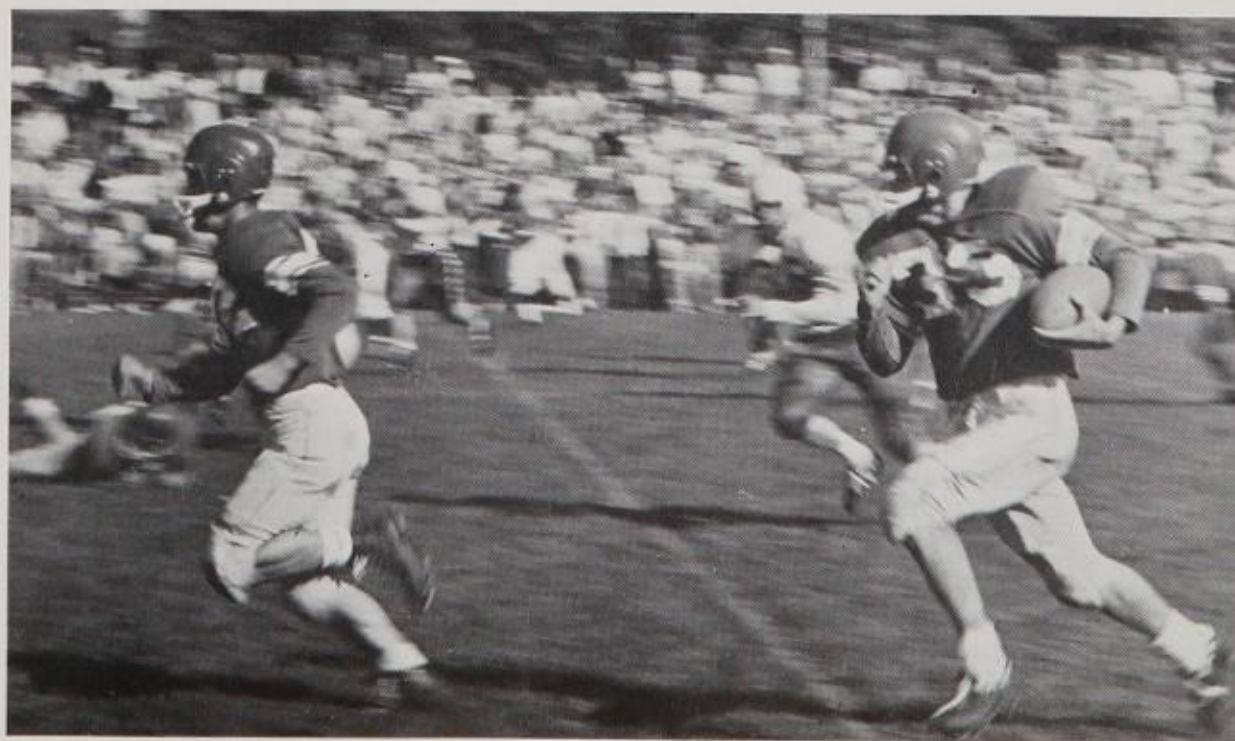

The coaching staff which guided and directed the team throughout the year was headed by Mr. Walter Aschenbach, who was assisted by Mr. H. Caton, Mr. E. G. Ellis, and Mr. E. A. Weingartner.

Sophs take second in Suburban League

The sophomore football team opened the season with a practice game against Harrison Tech. Every member of the squad saw action with six players scoring touchdowns as New Trier won easily 40-0.

In the Suburban League opener the Ponies defeated Oak Park 19-0, with Captain John Ade, fullback and extra point kicker Chuck Mercein, and Paul Stonich scoring for New Trier. The following week the sophomores beat Highland Park by a score of 27-6. Mercein, Herb Timm, and Chuck Barnhill scored for New Trier while the fine play of the defensive squad held Highland Park to a single touchdown.

The next Saturday the Ponies suffered their first and only defeat of the season, losing to Morton 20-14 despite a fine defensive effort. For most of the sophomores, it was their first loss in high school, as their freshman A team had gone undefeated and their B team lost only once. The sophomores quickly bounced back and the following week beat the Evanston team 19-7, with Mercein leading the scoring and Stonich contributing fine passing, as he did throughout the entire season. The next week the Ponies overwhelmed Waukegan 25-13; John Sherman scored three touchdowns to lead the New Trier offensive attack, while Ade scored the other New Trier touchdown and Dave Campion kicked the Ponies' only extra point.

In their fifth Suburban League victory against one defeat, the sophomores overpowered Proviso 35-0. Captain Ade scored three times and passed for another score, while Sandy McRae and Jack Heidbrink lead the defensive team. Place kickers Mercein and Campion succeeded in making all five extra point attempts.

The Ponies concluded the 1958 season with a 19-0 victory over Niles. With their six and one record the sophomores took second place in the Suburban League, finishing behind only undefeated Morton. Coach Chuck Lauer said that the team was one of the best balanced squads he had ever coached.

Led by Captain Steve Bagby and guided by Coach Pete Frantzen, the junior varsity football team was the only New Trier football team to win a Suburban League title this season. The Indians thus continued the junior varsity record of undefeated seasons which began in 1955. The players on these squads have all paid great tribute to the leadership supplied by the excellent coaching staff in establishing such an excellent record.

John Christoffersen of the New Trier squad was the Suburban League junior varsity scoring leader. The entire team helped to achieve their outstanding record, however, for they all played excellent football in all their games. Great teamwork and high spirits prevailed throughout their triumphal season.

Christoffersen's scoring and alert defensive play by Bruce Dahlin, Rick Webster, and LeRoy Woodruff left New Trier victorious in the games with Oak Park, Glenbrook, and Morton. A fine team effort carried New Trier to a close win over Evanston 15-14 and, the following week, an easy defeat of Proviso 28-0. The junior varsity finished their great season with a 13-7 defeat of Niles.

Neither freshman football team had an especially outstanding season. The A team ended the season with a 5-2 record, losing only to Evanston 12-0 and to Niles in the season's finale by the score of 14-13. The B team had a season's record of 2-3, as they lost to Morton, Evanston and Proviso. The freshmen fought hard but were outclassed physically by their larger opponents. Mr. Malinsky, Mr. Funkhouser, Mr. Shoresman, Mr. Cramlet, Mr. Wellington, and Mr. Larsen coached the freshmen.

Varsity cross-country third in S. L.

The fifth year for cross country at New Trier was another successful one with Coach Ben Almaguer coaching the harriers to a six won and one lost record. Mr. Almaguer spurred a New Trier team which barely missed taking first place in the Suburban League over a powerful Proviso team. In the all-important qualifying district meet, New Trier took a disappointing third, falling behind by only a few points. However, sophomore Weymouth Kirkland surprised and delighted everyone by winning first place at the district meet and then by taking second place in the highly competitive state meet.

In most of the dual meets, next year's captain, Wendy Carpenter, led the team. He was followed by senior Bruce Meyer and juniors Dave Hatcher and Bill Ohle. In the 19-41 win over Highland Park, Carpenter was timed in 9:17 for the 1.85 mile course at Skokie Playfield. This time is only five seconds away from the course record of 9:12 set by Ned Elliot in the 1957-1958 season. Except for the 19-41 loss to Proviso, the team scored impressively by winning every other dual meet with a score under 20 points.

The frosh-soph cross country team under Coach James McFadzean won the Suburban League title. They were bolstered by Weymouth Kirkland, Tibbs Carpenter, who took fifth place at the varsity district meet, Chuck Brooks and Terry Campbell.

THE CROSS COUNTRY TEAM WORKS OUT IN THE FIELD HOUSE

At the annual awards banquet varsity letters were presented to Perry Bosshart, Tibbs Carpenter, Bob Jeffers, Dave Hatcher, Weymouth Kirkland, Ray Manahan, Bill Ohle, Chuck Powell, and Bob White. Certificates went to lettermen Wendy Carpenter, Morrill Dunn, Bruce Meyer, and Barry Werner.

The members of the frosh-soph cross country team were as follows: Aronson, Borre, Braun, Brook, Buchanan, Campbell, Calhoun, Carpenter, Currier, Collins, Depperman, Donnelly, Etnyre, Glaser, Goldman, Harper, Harbaugh, Hopkins, Hill, Kaffenberger, Kirkland, Man-

Varsity sees much action on courts this year

New Trier's varsity basketball team fared poorly this season winning only five out of eighteen games. They began the season fairly well, as they won three out of their first five games, losing only to Maine and Evanston by scores of 46-37 and 58-50 respectively, and defeating Riverside-Brookfield by the score of 65-40, Morton 74-69, and Niles 49-43.

Despite their fair showing at the beginning of the season, the rest of the year was bleak for New Trier as the varsity managed to win only one other Suburban League contest, a second triumph over Morton, this time by a score of 58-36. Ending the season with a three won and twelve lost Suburban League record, the New Trier varsity basketball team placed last in the league.

In the state championship tournament New Trier was able to defeat Highland Park 77-65 in their first game but was eliminated in the next game by North Chicago.

Center Frank Cassell was named to the first string Suburban League all-star team, and at the basketball banquet was presented with the captain's trophy for individual accomplishment and sportsmanship in play throughout the year. Junior guard Dick Gritschke received the rebounding trophy and Chuck Powell won the free throw trophy.

Seniors Dave Davis and Bob Jeffers, and juniors Dick Gritschke, Don Haider, Jim Kennedy and Chuck Powell received varsity letters. Certificates were given to returning lettermen Frank Cassell, Shelly Erickson, Vance Etnyre, John Kearney, and Dudley Wing. The varsity squad was coached by Mr. Tom Nisbet and Mr. Jerry Morgan.

The New Trier sophomore basketball team ended its season with an impressive eleven won and five lost record to place third in the Suburban League.

Under the guidance of their coach, Mr. John Jacobson, the sophomores opened their season by defeating Riverside-Brookfield 44-39. They lost their next game, however, in a close game against Maine by the score of 46-41.

In the remaining fourteen games in their schedule, the New Trier team lost only four times, three times to a team they had previously beaten and the fourth to a team they would later beat.

Their game against Oak Park was exciting right up to the last few seconds when Oak Park went ahead to win by one point, 55-54. In their return game with Morton, whom they had already once beaten, the New Trier men found themselves unable to repeat their performance and lost 47-38.

In the last two games of the season the sophomores slowed down and were defeated by two teams they had previously beaten, Proviso and Waukegan, losing by scores of 53-48 and 52-46 respectively.

At the annual basketball banquet Coach Jacobson awarded sophomore letters to Larry Atkins, Carey Cook, Dave Coolidge, Dave Crow, Steve Depperman, Scott Etnyre, Chester Green, Jim Holmes, Duncan MacLean, George McRae, Wally Naftzger, Les Overlock, Don Proft, Paul Stonich, and Maurice Wolff.

JV BASKETBALL

The five won and seven lost record the New Trier junior varsity basketball team turned in for the season was not truly indicative of their quality of play through the entire season. Although they had played poorly the first part of the season, in their last five games they began to work as a unit and won four of them and lost only one. The one loss was a heart-breaker as Niles forged ahead in the last few seconds to win 50 to 49.

Just prior to their loss to Niles, the men of the junior varsity had defeated the Evanston Wildkits 54 to 46 and the following week they proceeded to beat Oak Park 57 to 54. Their next game against Proviso, a team to which they had already lost once, was their most thrilling game of the year. Just before the final buzzer Louis Morgan broke a 60-60 tie with the winning basket.

The Freshman A basketball squad under the able coaching of Mr. Roy Etnyre finished its season with a fair six and six won-lost record. Most of the games they played were either won by a sizeable margin or lost by one. As the season progressed, however, the boys seemed to show an encouraging improvement in their play.

The freshmen began the season well with a 52 to 45 victory over Leyden, but they were handed decisive losses in their next three games with Evanston, Morton and Niles. These losses were soon forgotten, and the team went on to beat Oak Park 38 to 15, and then followed up by beating Highland Park by the score of 51-36.

They fought their way to victory again in their next game against Proviso, defeating them 50 to 41, but Evanston stopped the freshmen's victory streak by defeating them, 46-29. The team was not slowed, however, by the Evanston loss, for the following week they easily defeated Niles, 35 to 23.

A loss to Oak Park, a second victory over Proviso and an inglorious twenty point defeat by a powerful Waukegan team brought the freshman basketball season to a close.

The freshman B team, coached by Mr. Melvin Esarey, fought its way to a five won and seven lost record.

N.T. swimmers take 4th successive state championship

In spite of losing their final two meets of the season, the varsity swimming team took their fourth straight state championship, and a share of the Suburban League title.

Captains Pete Heitman, Don Merz, and Tony Wilson led the team throughout the season. Heitman won the 200 free-style in the state and finished second in the 400 free-style, while Merz was second in the diving. Wilson received the Ned Schroeder award for team sportsmanship and loyalty. Mr. Robertson, Mr. Essick, and Mr. Condon were coaches.

Sophomore Dale Kiefer broke the New Trier record while winning the 150 individual medley in the state and placing fourth in the 100 butterfly.

Laird took the 50 free in the Suburban League meet, and Lederer, Manaster, Shane, and Slaughter won the 200 free-style relay. Second places were taken by Heitman, Kiefer, Merz, and Pullman.

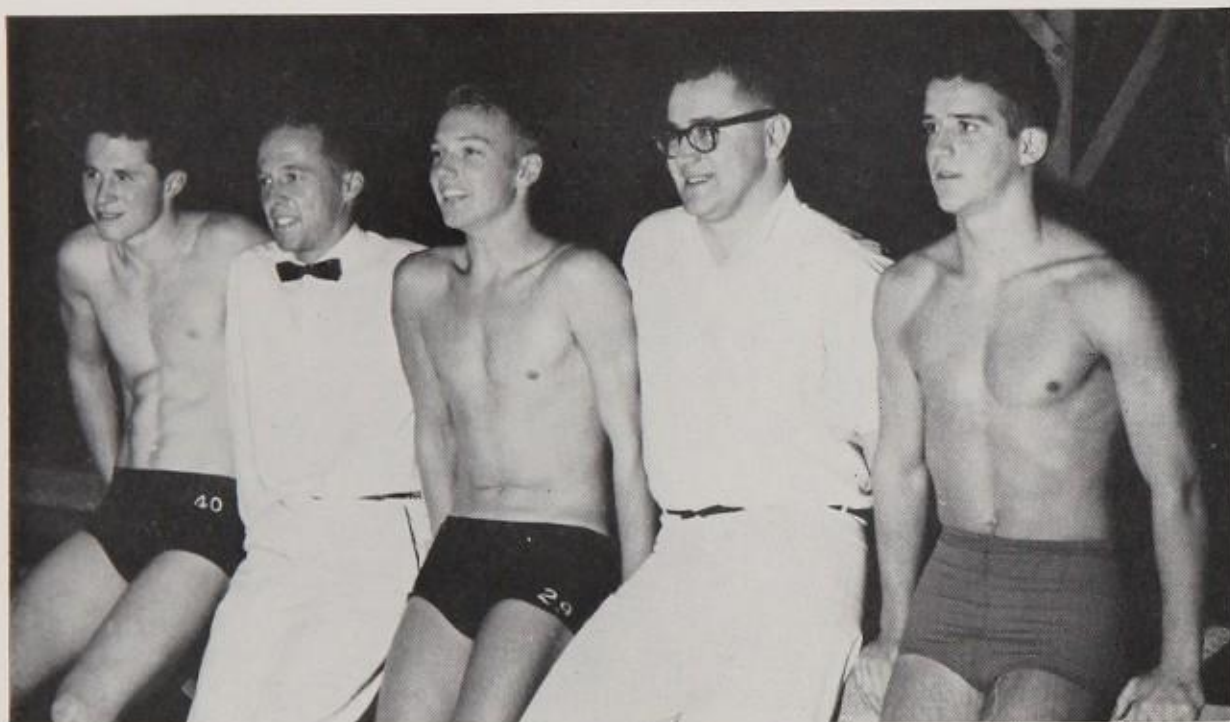

In the Indian Relays, Heitman and Kiefer set new relay records. A sophomore 400 freestyle relay of Andreas, Grant, Kiefer, and Lyons also won.

The sophs were undisputed Suburban League champs, as Goettsche won the 50 back, Lyons took the 75 individual medley and McDougall topped the diving. The freestyle relay won, too. The frosh took second place in the Suburban League meet behind Evanston.

Wrestlers fourth in Suburban League

Again this year, like last, the New Trier wrestling team was greatly hampered by injuries. Despite this handicap, the wrestlers placed fourth in the Suburban League and finished eighth in the state tournament.

The Indians, beginning the season poorly, lost their opening meet to Reavis 26-17, but they came back the following week by soundly trouncing North Chicago, and, later the same week, going on to defeat Morton 24-12. The following week Niles went down in defeat before the Indian team.

At the Waukegan Tournament on January second and third, New Trier placed eight wrestlers to take second place in the team standings. In the finals of this meet, Kurt Schaefer suffered a concussion that put him out of competition for six weeks.

On January sixth, the varsity squad defeated the Maine Township High School team, but on January ninth, due to the illness of several wrestlers, the New Trier team could manage only a tie with a strong Oak Park team. Co-captain Lee

New Trier took second place in the district events preliminary to the state meet, qualifying eight men for the sectionals. Of the eight qualifiers in the sectional competition Ken Behm, Kurt Schaefer, and co-captains Lee Bateman and Ned Mason went downstate. New Trier took third in the sectional meet at Waukegan and eighth in the state meet at Arlington Heights. Kurt Schaefer took fourth in state at 154 pounds, and Lee Bateman won the state championship in 165 pound division.

Varsity letters were given to juniors Sheldon Hershinow, Sandy Hodge, Bob Prentiss, Mike Schneider, and Tom Hecht, who was elected next year's captain, and seniors like Mike Lane and Ben Porter. Mr. Allen Hurley coached the varsity team.

Frosh-sophs show potential

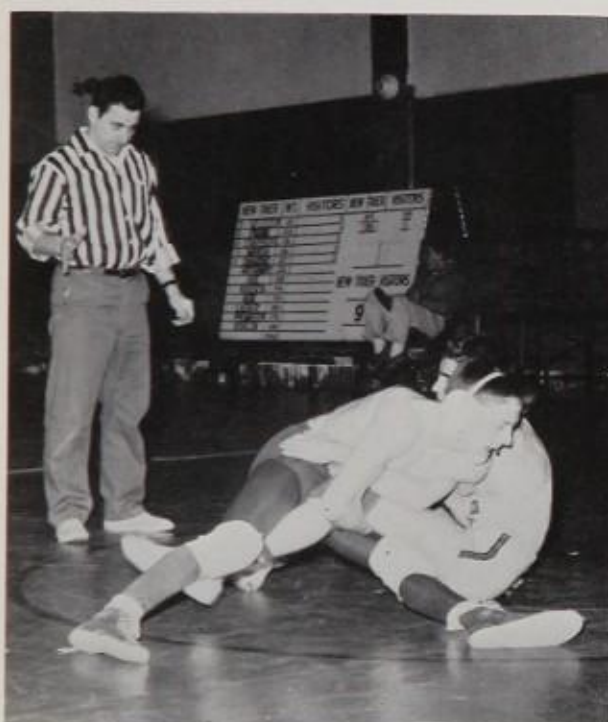

The frosh-soph wrestling team started the season by losing a close meet to Reavis by a score of 28-23. In their next meet they defeated the team from North Chicago but lost the next five meets before finally recovering to rout Highland Park 42-2. The team then lost to Proviso and Evanston before rising again to defeat Glenbrook by a score of 26-16. In the final meet of the season the team lost to Waukegan 24-18, and John Ade lost his only match of the year.

did an excellent job of both wrestling and leading the team throughout the season. Mr. Wellington and Mr. Zanetakos coached the sophomore team.

Gymnasts finish fourth in state

The New Trier gymnastics team in 1958-59 competed in two state meets and twelve dual meets. At the Northern Illinois Invitational Meet, the varsity team took fifth place in the competition among seventeen high schools. They fared even better in the Illinois High School Association state meet, taking fourth place among twenty schools. Of the thirteen New Trier team members entered, six placed in the finals: Don Bradbury, on still rings; Mark Erenburg, trampoline; Rich Morgan and Bob Spertus, high bar; and Paul Levy and Tom Mann, side horse. The record for dual meets was three wins and nine losses.

At the gymnastics banquet in March, varsity letters were awarded to Doug Goucher, Ron Granstrom, Mike Hanner, Paul Levy, Joe Miller, Rich Morgan, Joel Packel, and Jim Sprowl. Mark Erenburg received a certificate. The varsity coach was Mr. Giallombardo.

The frosh-soph gymnastics team, coached by Mr. Earl Schabel, had a good season with seven wins and four losses.

Tennis team's season impressive

Once again this year, the varsity tennis team of New Trier has been very successful in most of its matches. The tennis team, under the coaching of Mr. Davis and leadership of Captain Mike Belknap, played in the usual series of interscholastic matches. Scores included these: N. T., 2, Oak Park 3; N. T., 4, Highland Park 1; N. T., 2, Hinsdale 3; N. T., 5, Waukegan 0; N.T., 5, Morton 0; N. T., 4, Lake Forest 1; N. T. 1, Evanston 4; N. T. 3, Niles 2. Due to the improvement of the tennis team's opponents, New Trier had a real challenge to undertake.

Notable improvements of style and development of skill characterized the members of the varsity and sophomore teams.

Seniors Dick Avery, Quentin Carter, Mike Belknap, and Bill Rice, with the benefit of several years of experience in these matches, exhibited real excellence in the tournaments against Maine to bring a 5-0 victory to New Trier's team. Juniors Tom Silfen, Wally Eiseman, Bob Fitzgerald, and Charlie Phillips brought victories in the Arlington Heights and Maine matches. The sophomores did very well this year and will probably show excellent records for New Trier in the future.

All the tennis teams have done well this year. Even with the loss of the seniors, next year's varsity team should perform creditably due to the large number of trained juniors.

The New Trier varsity indoor track team lost the first two meets of the 1959 season, the first of them to Morton and the second to the always powerful Maine team. In their next meet, however, the team came to life and easily defeated Proviso East on the New Trier track by a $65\frac{1}{3}$ to $34\frac{2}{3}$ score. After taking second behind Oak Park in a quadrangular meet there, New Trier finished their dual and quadrangular meets for the season by coming from behind to defeat Evanston in a dual meet by the score of 51 to 49.

The highlight of the indoor track team's season was the Evanston Relays. The New Trier two mile relay team of Wendy Carpenter, Bruce Meyer, Ron Horton, and Dave Hatcher set the pace for the meet by establishing a new meet record of 8:24.3. Senior Bruce Meyer and junior Wendy Carpenter then went on to take first and second places respectively in the one mile run. New Trier took second place behind state champion Bloom, falling only six points short.

In the Suburban League meet, held this year at Evanston, New Trier missed first place by five points, taking second to Proviso East. In the Oak Park Relays, often called the indoor track "state meet," New Trier took fourth behind Bloom, Oak Park, and Phillips. Wes Sidney was the only individual winner for New Trier.

The members of the track team who contributed especially to the team's success were sprinter and quartermiler Stu Fried, high jumper Wesley Sidney, pole vaulters Dick Gritschke and George Brannen, quarter milers Barry Werner and John Christoffersen, hurdler Ted Claire, and shot putter Chuck Mercein. The team was coached by Mr. Ben Almaguer.

Trackmen third in state meet

After taking third place in the Illinois state high school track meet at Memorial Stadium in Champaign, the New Trier track team wound up a fine outdoor season.

On April 25 the team at its full strength traveled to the Waukegan Relays. Bloom won the meet with 118 points and New Trier was second with 56 points. On May 2 at the Mooseheart Relays, New Trier again took a second place to Bloom. The middle distance relay team composed of Stu Fried, Dick Mandel, John Christoffersen, and Barry Werner took another first place as they had previously done at Waukegan. The distance medley relay team of Ron Horton, Bruce Meyer, Fried and Werner also took first place.

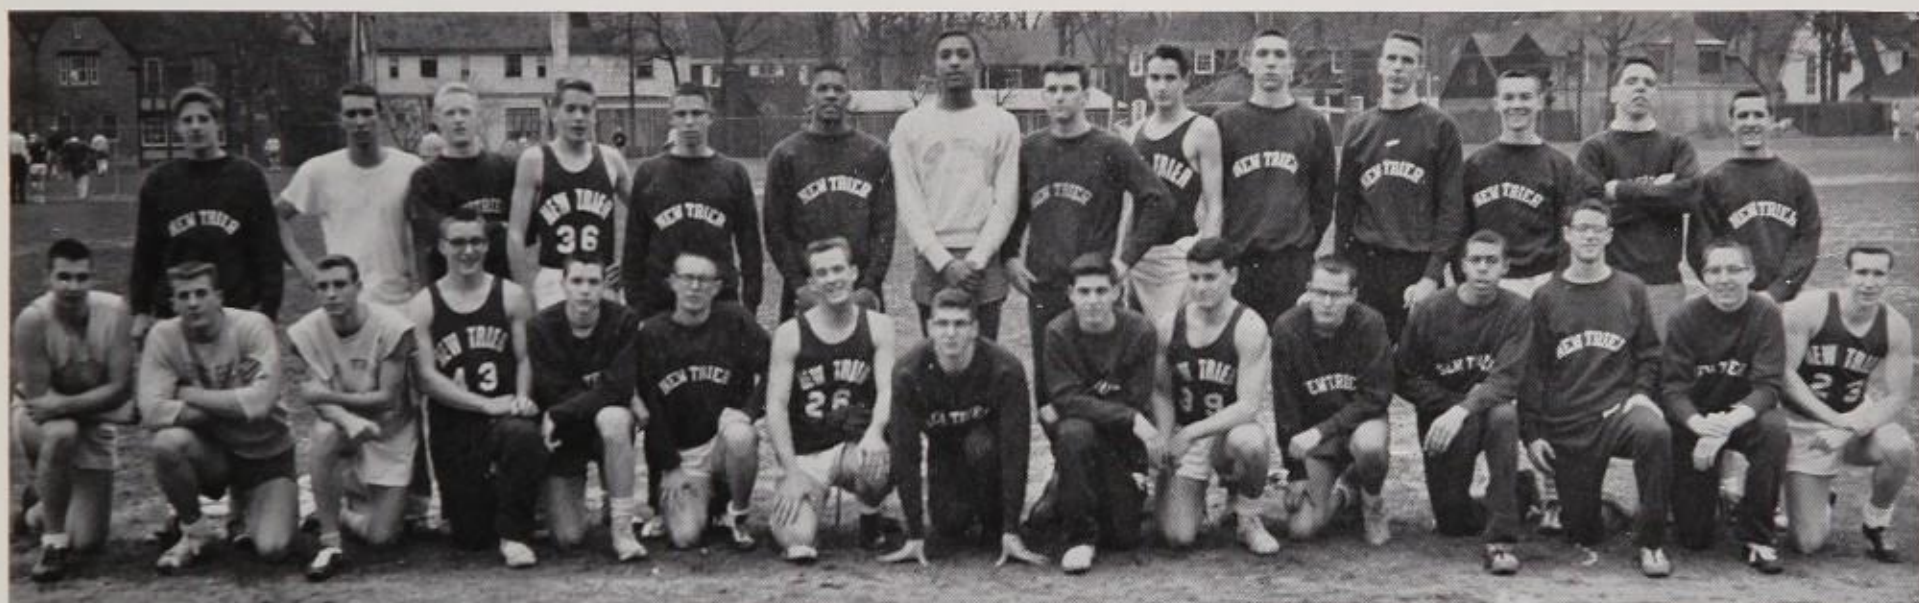

At the annual district meet held at Evanston New Trier topped all other teams with a score of $40\frac{1}{3}$ points to second place Maine's 30 points. Stu Fried won second in the 100-yard dash and first in the 200-yard dash. Barry Werner qualified for state by winning the 440-yard dash. Wendy Carpenter and Bruce Meyer finished first and second in the mile run. Hatcher qualified by taking fifth in the half mile. In the field events Chuck Mercein took fourth place in the shot put; Wes Sidney tied for second in the high jump, and Dick Gritschke tied for first in the pole vault. John Christoffersen, Bob White, Ron Horton and Barry Werner composed the winning mile relay team for New Trier.

Those members of the team who went on to win places in the state meet were these: Dick Gritschke, fourth place in the pole vault; Stu Fried, third place in the 100-yard dash; Barry Werner, third place in the 440-yard dash, and Wes Sidney, first place in the high jump with a jump of 6' 3".

Varsity baseball team's record poor

The New Trier varsity baseball team was scheduled to play fourteen Suburban League games in this, the 1959, season. Also scheduled were a district meet, a state meet and games with four schools not in the Suburban League. At press time the Indians had posted a three win, twelve loss, and one tie record, competing in a total of sixteen games.

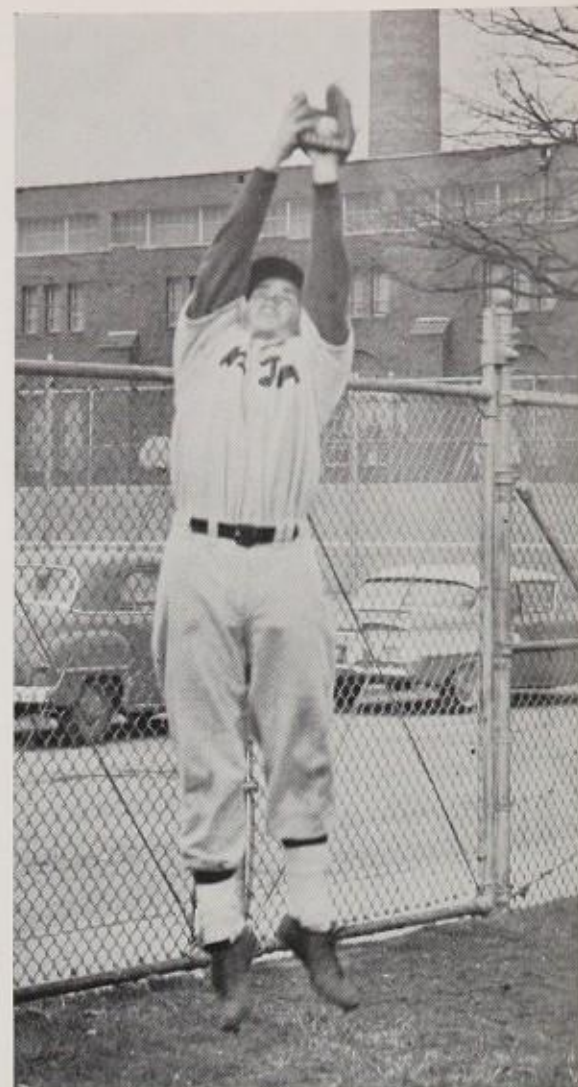

The New Trier ball club opened the season by edging Taft High School of Chicago 3 to 2. The pitching done by Erickson and Adams was excellent as they yielded only three hits. All New Trier's runs were scored in the fourth inning on four walks, a single and an error.

In their first Suburban League game of the season New Trier fell to the Wildkits of Evanston 12 to 7. Although they out-hit the Evanstonians eight to seven, only one of the Indians' hits went for extra bases, a fourth inning double by Chuck Powell.

This first loss was followed by seven more before the New Trierites were finally able to salvage a win. In a return match with their perennial rival, Evanston, the Indians battled to a 6 to 5 victory. New Trier took the lead immediately by scoring two runs in the first inning. Evanston scored once in the second inning and New Trier tallied twice again in the fourth. Evanston tied it up in the bottom half of the fourth by scoring three times. But New Trier fought back and scored once in the fifth and again in the sixth, and were able to hold a last inning Evanston rally to one run to win the game.

After their triumph over Evanston, the team split a double header with league-leading Proviso East. The Indians were shut out in the first game 7 to 0, but they held the Proviso Pirates to three runs on five hits while scoring six runs on seven hits themselves to take the game.

Mr. Lionel Lightner coached the varsity ball team.

Because of poor weather conditions early this spring, the New Trier baseball teams completed their organization later than usual. Despite this handicap the sophomore baseball team won their first game of the year, a practice game against Taft High School of Chicago, by a score of 3 to 1. In their next game, however, the Ponies were soundly defeated by a strong Sullivan High School team, 14 to 1.

The team lost their first Suburban League game, on April 18, to Niles 9 to 1, but won their next three games, defeating Notre Dame, North Chicago, and Waukegan by scores of 4 to 0, 8 to 6, and 7 to 3 respectively. The Ponies lost their next game, against Morton, 7 to 3.

On April 30 the team faced Evanston and won easily, 15 to 3. Again the next week the sophomores played against Evanston and again they won, this time by a score of 7 to 0.

In their next game the sophomore baseball team played and easily defeated the Proviso team. Two days later the Ponies trounced Glenbrook, tallying thirteen runs to Glenbrook's three. In their last game before press time the sophomores lost to Notre Dame 4 to 0.

The team's record was five wins and two losses in Suburban League competition with only two games left in the season. The team was coached by Mr. Larry Irwin and Mr. Ted Cramlet.

The freshman baseball team did not fare as well as the sophomores, winning only three of the ten games they played before Echoes went to press. Mr. Calvin Lill and Mr. Cory Hartbarger coached the freshman team.

Golf team has a winning season

The golf team of 1959 opened the usual yearly series of tournaments with an 8 to 7 victory over Palatine High School. This success for New Trier was only one of many which were to come. New Trier's golfers defeated Glenbrook 19-5; Oak Park 11-4; Maine 22-2; Proviso 10½-4½; and tied Morton 7½-7½. The golf team dropped matches to Joliet Catholic and Highland Park. But for the most part, the team was successful in this year's competitions.

Under the coaching of Mr. Ray Fearheiley, many golf team members obtained notable recognition, not only in the interscholastic matches, but also in the Illinois State matches held at Champaign. New Trier sent four men to this state meet: Jim Bronner, Fred Fischl, Terry Natenberg, and Bill Seltzer. All of these players have performed well this year and have helped to bring the many triumphs to New Trier.

The varsity golf team was composed this year of boys with records equal to those of golfers on any fine high school team. Other members of the team were Max Fouer, Jeff Provol, Bucky Wagner, Bill McGuire, Frank Blatchford, Bob Ellis, Hugh Ruddock, and Rick Cohen.

IM program offers over twenty sports

Under the direction of the I.M. board and their sponsor, Mr. Fred Barney, the intramural staff completed its third year of student leadership. The board and the game supervisors put hours of time, thought, and effort into keeping the expanded program running smoothly for the increased number of participants.

The point system was handled by Don Joseph and Leigh Paquin. Added to the duties of the point system staff was the major change of the year, the new individual point system. Under the individual point system a boy may, as well as win points for his adviser room, compete for medals and trophies for individual achievement and participation.

The intramural department offered over twenty sports this year, including four major team sports: touch football, basketball, volleyball, and softball. Also offered were team table tennis, team handball, and numerous individual events.

The fall season started off with touch football. In a hard fought game Mr. Robertson's juniors triumphed over Mr. Pink's senior champions 13-0 to take the school championship. Also held at this time were tennis, golf, horseshoes, and cross country track. Class champions included in tennis, Bill Ewen, Ray Brandell, Tom Siporin, and Jack Kraft; in golf, Craig Clough, Dave Coolidge, Ron Glesener, and Charles Spalding; in horseshoes, Tom Allison, Tom Reinwald, Ron

The basketball championships were won by Mr. Hoyt's, Mr. Labadie's, and Mr. Larsen's adviser rooms, and by Mr. McFadzean's adviser room, which won the school championship for the second straight year.

In the team table tennis tournament, the championship adviser room teams in each class were: Mr. Koser, Mr. Labadie, Mr. Newman, and Mr. McFadzean. In individual table tennis, Al Hoffman, Jim Bronner, Ron Nilsson, and Arnie Kushner were the victors in their respective classes.

Bill Ewen, Larry Beckman, Tom Silfen, and Mike Curci won the individual handball championships in the freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes respectively. The adviser room teams of Mr. James, Mr. Labadie, Mr. McKendall, and Mr. Malinsky won the team handball.

After the basketball season a free-throw contest was held. Senior Charles Spalding captured all honors with a perfect score of fifty baskets out of fifty shots. Also shooting good scores were juniors Steve Kremer and Steve Dahl; sophomores Jim Bronner, Dave Maytnier, and Bill Rice; and freshman Bob Nelson.

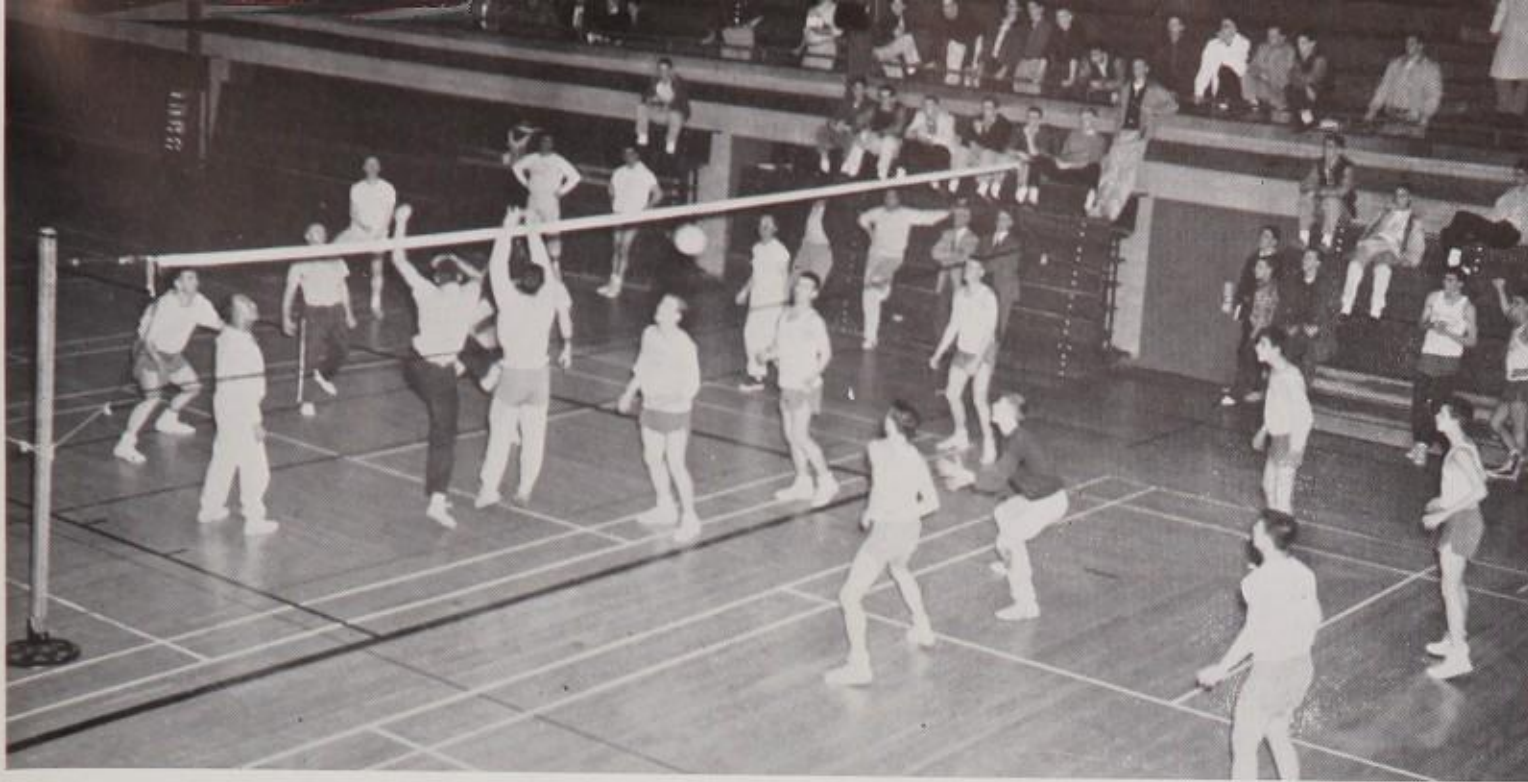

Other individual events held during the winter included swimming, wrestling and track. The swimming meet was won by the adviser rooms of Mr. Caton, Mr. Robertson, Mr. Marz, and Mr. Funkhouser—senior, junior, sophomore and freshman champions respectively.

In wrestling the school championships were won by sophomores Tony Thomas, Fred Gould, and Ed Mack; juniors Art Bernstein and Paul Culberg; and seniors Ralph Miller, Arnie Kushner, Fred Bates, John Kearney, Chuck Sethness, Leroy Woodruff, and Bill Thornton.

The senior track meet was won by Mr. Fearheiley's adviser room, the junior meet by Mr. Jensen's group, the sophomore meet by Mr. Etnyre's room, and the freshman meet by Mr. Hoyt's adviser room.

In volleyball Mr. Aschenbach's room climaxed an undefeated season by beating the faculty for the first time in a number of years. The adviser rooms of Mr. Koser, Mr. Wilson, and Mr. McKendall also won class championships.

The spring sports were softball, badminton, and Franklin Merritt tennis. Mr. Barney stated that this year was "a very fine" one for the intramural department, but that through the many things that the department learned this year, next year will be even better.

887 freshmen adjust rapidly to New Trier

The adjustment of 887 freshmen to the rigors of New Trier was quickly and efficiently accomplished through the combined efforts of students and faculty. Orientation began in the adviser rooms, as students befriended classmates, discussed social matters with Freshmen Helpers, and received academic advice from their advisers. Miss Blanche Veach and Mr. Jerry Kelley, freshmen adviser chairmen, planned the year's two dances, promoted class activities, and held individual conferences with many students.

Several events were organized to help acquaint the freshmen with school life. The first was the Freshman-Senior Girls' Party at which the freshman girls met classmates, the seniors, and the Girls' Club Board. The sophomore girls entertained freshman "little sisters" at adviser room parties. At the Frosh and New Girls' Party given by the Girls' Athletic Association, the girls for the first time came in contact with the program of after-school sports. The boys were soon introduced to Tri-Ship's three aims: citizenship, fellowship, and sportsmanship. By the end of the year, many of them had earned membership through participation in athletics and extra-curriculars.

Informality was the keynote of both class parties, which were no-date affairs held in the student lounge. The Class of '62 responded with enthusiasm to the November dance managed by the Freshmen Helpers, who chose the entertainment and later acted as mixers. The second party, "Over the Rainbow," took place after the election of the class officers—Tim Ade, president; Allison Blair, vice-president; Carol Embree, secretary; and Tom Hutcheson, treasurer—and the appointment of the steering committees. The class has won a well deserved reputation for its promise.

The Sophomore Class displayed enthusiasm in their various social, academic, and extra-curricular activities. Early in the fall, the Sophomore Class elected officers. The winners in the vigorous contest were Frank Patton, president; Sigrid Wohlrab, vice-president; Bruce Buehler, treasurer, and Karen Isgrig, secretary. A representative from each of the thirty-two adviser groups was appointed for the sophomore steering committee. The officers and steering committee worked with adviser chairmen Mrs. Virginia Jobst and Mr. Earl Weingartner, planning activities and promoting class unity throughout the year.

During the year, two no-date, all-class parties were sponsored by the sophomores. The first of these was "Shangri-La" on December 13. An hour-long program of entertainment in the auditorium opened the party. The students had a chance to discover the hidden abilities of their classmates through a talent show in which only sophomores were allowed to participate. Refreshments and dancing to Jake Jerger's twelve-piece band followed in the lounge. The production of the first party was so successful that the same general pattern was adopted for the second party of the year, "Davy Jones Rock," on March 7. There was entertainment in the auditorium and later dancing in the lounge to Jake Jerger's band. The decorations in the lounge lent an unusual and exotic atmosphere. Using an under-water theme, the committee decorated the room in blue and green with murals and fish nets around the walls. In addition to these two parties, the girls held a hag party on April 24. The movie, "Easy to Love," student entertainers chosen through try-outs, and refreshments contributed to a very full evening. The social functions gave the class a chance to get together to become better acquainted apart from the usual pressures of a school day.

The Sophomore Class contributed whole-heartedly to the school's various charity campaigns. For the United Fund Drive they had many projects for raising money, which included bake sales, car washes, raffles, and one project of taking a group of children to the zoo. Two of the high-contributing adviser groups, Miss Anderson's and Mrs. Greeson's, were sophomore groups. The sophomore class turned in $655.67 in all, the second highest amount of the four classes.

Also as a service project, the sophomore girls helped welcome the new freshman girls by giving adviser room parties for their "little sisters." Since the sophomores are closer to the freshmen than any other class, they were especially able to make the freshmen feel at home.

The extra-curricular activities of the Sophomore Class were numerous and varied. Sophomores participated not only in their own parties, but also in many of the larger school productions and concerts. The boys were active in sports, as was shown in the excellent records of the sophomore teams. The class showed enthusiasm and leadership throughout the year and certainly gave promise of a fine future at New Trier.

Juniors begin to assume leadership of school

The Class of 1960, the largest in the history of New Trier, has throughout the year exhibited accomplishments more than equal to its size. The 945 juniors have shown considerable ability in both academic and extra-curricular areas, well demonstrating their readiness to assume future school leadership. Guided by adviser chairmen Miss Frances Bredin and Mr. Roland Wehr, the class made a creditable contribution to the school.

Early fall saw the election of class officers in which the following juniors were chosen to represent the class: Chari Yost, president; Gerry Magner, vice-president; Sue Whittemore, secretary; and Chip Laird, treasurer. Meeting frequently, the officers and the junior steering committee undertook the supervision of class affairs and social events.

The annual no-date junior party, the "Buckboard Bounce," was held on November 22, in the student lounge. Entertainment and refreshments consistent with the party's Western theme helped to make the evening a huge success.

The junior girls' Valentine dance, "Rhapsody in Red," took place February 7, at the Glencoe Women's Library Club. A turnabout by tradition, the dance featured decorations and lighting effects that were a tribute to the various class committees which put much time and effort into them.

The scholastic program of the junior year continued to include advanced courses in English and mathematics. Required in all English courses, however, was the writing of various versions of the traditional junior research theme based on documentary material. In the fall all members of the class took a number of comprehensive tests designed to compute the student's performance in verbal and quantitative areas, as well as to measure his achievements in designated academic fields. The results of these tests will be sent to all colleges to which juniors submit applications.

Because many colleges have adopted the program of early application and decision, preparation for college became increasingly important to juniors. A growing number of juniors took both the College Entrance Examination Board tests and the Merit Scholarship Qualifying Tests, hoping to qualify for the most coveted scholastic award.

The Class of 1960 actively supported every kind of school activity. Junior support on most squads was vital to the strength of our athletic teams; it was greatly through the contribution of junior members that New Trier was able to take the state swimming title. The class was also active in the various dramatic and musical productions presented this year.

During the second semester, juniors began to assume leadership in principal school organizations. Student Council officers were elected in January; thirteen juniors were appointed to board positions by the four officers, also juniors. Officers of other major organizations, Girls' Club, G.A.A., Tri-Ship and others, were selected later in the spring.

An important event of the junior year was the election in April of senior class officers. The incoming slate, taking office in June, was Bill McGuire, president; Anne Giallombardo, vice-president; Carol Buck, secretary; and Bob Bingham, treasurer.

Seniors lead New Trier through productive year

Throughout their four years at New Trier the Class of 1959 felt changes in New Trier's facilities and policies. The class was the first group to experience an examination week and to be ranked on the new grade point system designed to recognize variations among homogeneous sections.

This year's seniors took as part of college preparation College Entrance Examination Board Tests, Advanced Placement Tests, and National Merit Scholarship Tests. Twenty-two students qualified as National Merit Finalists, and winners were Richard Portes, Jeff Scargle, and Ralph Shuey.

As leaders in Girls' Club, Tri-Ship, Student Council, Publications, and other organizations, the seniors put many changes into effect. As performers in many dramatic, musical, and sports events, they displayed a wide range of talent.

Three senior canteens again filled otherwise uneventful weekends, under the leadership of Bob Herbert and his board. The two Christmas formals, "Winter Dream" and "Twilight Blue," were sponsored by the graduating class. Second semester, for the first time, seniors enjoyed exclusively senior days in the student lounge. The final school-sponsored social activity of the senior class, the spring picnic, was scheduled for June 5.

The class was guided by its four officers, the thirty-two members of its steering committee, and the two adviser chairmen, Miss Louise Hamilton and Mr. William Gannaway.

Commencement, June 11, is to be held in the gymnasium. In choosing to graduate in white gowns and tuxedos, the Class of '59 adhered to the long-standing New Trier tradition.

In Memoriam

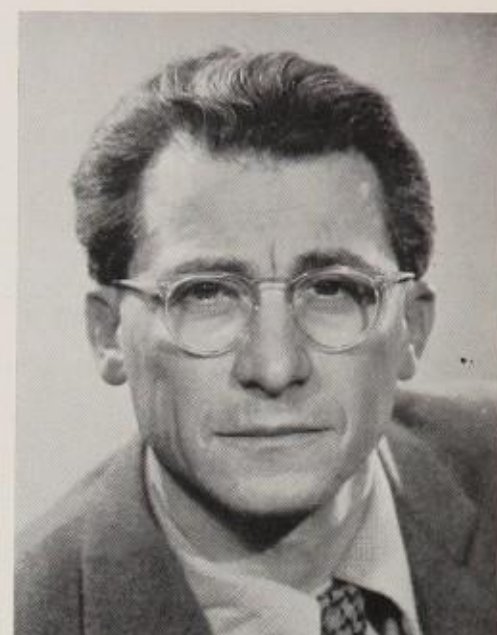

ROBERT E. SCHMUS

Classmates and teachers felt a heavy loss in the death of Bob Schmus, who passed away from acute leukemia on his seventeenth birthday, January 11, 1959. Having grown up in Kenilworth, he attended Joseph Sears School where he made many close and lasting friends. He was always interested in sports and particularly was fond of golf and riding. His friends at New Trier remember and admire him as a staunch friend, an outstanding pupil, and a fine citizen.

MICHAEL FLEISCHMAN

The Junior Class was grieved at the death of Michael Fleischman, who died suddenly of a cerebral hemorrhage on January 11, 1959. Born in 1942, he moved as a child to Winnetka, where he graduated from Skokie Junior High School. He served at New Trier as a hall guard for three years and in the messenger corps his sophomore year. He took active part in all intramural sports, particularly golf and football. His friends at New Trier were shocked by his death.

MR. EUGENE DEUTCH

On January 21, 1959, New Trier lost a talented, inspiring artist and teacher, Mr. Eugene Deutch. As a ceramics teacher, he had a genuine interest in his students and taught the outstanding pupils further in his own studio. As Mr. Holland, the head of the Art Department, has said: "There is no replacement for Eugene Deutch. Although we shall find inspiration in the memory of his devotion to his art and in the selfless life he lived, we shall always miss him."

MISS HELENA M. LENNARDS

The death of Miss Helena Lennards on January 8, 1959, has left an indelible mark on her many former Latin students, colleagues and close friends who now deeply feel her loss.

Miss Lennards taught Latin in several Eastern and Midwestern schools before joining New Trier's faculty in 1953. A serious illness cut short her service to this high school, but during her five years here she imparted to all her students great wealth, not only of the classics, but of her own outstanding character.

MRS. MARY L. ANDERSON

Mrs. Anderson passed away due to heart failure on January 26, 1959. During her sixteen years as a member of the New Trier staff, she served as cashier in the faculty lunchroom. Her earnest interest in others especially impressed the new teachers whom she came to know by name almost immediately. Besides her contribution to New Trier, she gave much time to the Winnetka Bible School and was head of the primary department there for several years. Her many friends will miss her cheerful greeting.

MRS. ELIZABETH JOHNSON FLOOD

On August 14, 1958, New Trier lost a dedicated librarian, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson Flood. As a member of the faculty for over twenty-nine years, Mrs. Flood was highly respected by both teachers and students for her intelligence and wide knowledge of books. In her memory her friends at New Trier established a fund to buy art books for the New Trier library. As Mr. Brown said, "This collection will serve as a lasting reminder of her very real interest in art and in New Trier High School."
